Reason for seeking special consideration for your room application (please outline the reason below):

Do you have any specific requirements for your accommodation?

Yes

No

If Yes above, please explain:

Next of kin information.

Name and relationship to you: _____

Telephone number: _____

Before proceeding to the next step of the application, please note the grounds on which you may seek special consideration are individual and must be extenuating. Extenuating circumstances mean that you may have a disability (Form A) or personal circumstances (Form B) and you should apply under one of the above only.

Incomplete applications at the time of review will not be considered. It is up to student to ensure the Accommodation Office is provided with the required documentation. All supporting documentation must be in English.

Please note only registered students are granted accommodation and students going off books for whatever reason during the academic year will be required to vacate their rooms.

Applicants for accommodation in Trinity on grounds of extenuating circumstances are advised to complete this form only and must submit relevant supporting documentation. Please tick one box below to confirm circumstances you are applying under.

- The student is experiencing difficult family circumstances /situations which affects their living arrangement and creates a need to live in college accommodation.
- Poor living arrangements- e.g., homeless, need financial assistance from State.
- Poor health and wellbeing in past year which significantly impacts on performance within college and identified need to live in college accommodation.
