U.S. Visas

Incoming exchange students must apply for a J-1 visa at the U.S Embassy or Consulate of their country of permanent residence. Necessary documents will be provided to you for your U.S. visa application after you have completed your application to Fisher College of Business.

<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas.html>

OR

<http://j1visa.state.gov/>

For immigration purposes, students must register for an Immigration Check-In Session with the OSU Office of International Affairs (OIA) upon arrival on campus and attend a university-wide orientation session. The Fisher College of Business orientation session is also required.

Cost of Living

Incoming exchange students are waived from the OSU tuition, but are required to pay the student fees and mandatory OSU student insurance while attending OSU. This costs is approximately $1900 per semester, including the mandatory OSU health insurance (amount subject to change). You will also be responsible for your travel, visas, accommodations, meals, living, and other personal expense during your stay in the U.S.

More information at <http://go.osu.edu/FCOBInboundFAQ>

Health Care and Insurance

Health Insurance

All international students are required to purchase the OSU Comprehensive Student Health Insurance Plan and will be automatically enrolled once approved to attend OSU. Should you have question on the insurance, visit <http://shi.osu.edu/> for more information.

Exceptions: International students who are fully financed or sponsored (including tuition, living expenses, medical expenses, etc.) under a government sponsor or a select international organization, or who are covered as a US-based employee, or as a dependent of a US-based employee, under US-based health insurance provided through that employment, may qualify for an exemption from coverage.

Vaccination

OSU requires that all students meet our Vaccination Requirements. Please review each component on OSU's Student Health Service page (<http://shc.osu.edu/services/vaccinations/vaccination-requirement/>) to determine which are applicable in your circumstance and complete as instructed. (All may apply.) You may need to receive a signature from a licensed medical provider to complete the requirements, so would advise you to complete this before you arrive in the U.S.

Student Health Services

The Wilce Student Health Center at The Ohio State University provides a variety of health care services to the student population. All students enrolled at OSU are eligible to use the health service, regardless of health insurance coverage. The OSU Medical Center is also available for health services. (<https://shs.osu.edu/>)

Housing & Dining

Dining

University Dining Services have over 20 convenient locations on campus where students can use any of the dining plans. From quick-service to fast casual to coffee shops to a full-service restaurant, there is a wide variety of appealing and nutritious cuisine available throughout the day.

OSU Dining Plan Rates*

Students are able to enroll in the OSU Dining Plans even if you are living off-campus. There are many plans for you to select from and it will cost approximately $1,900 - $2,300 per semester (amount subject to change).

*Actual rates will be posted to the OSU Dining website <http://food.osu.edu/dining-plans/>.

Off-campus Housing (<https://offcampus.osu.edu/>)

Be prepared to live off-campus and to find your own accommodation when coming to OSU. The OSU Off-Campus and Commuter Student Services (+1 614-292-0100 or offcampus@osu.edu) can assist you in your search for short-term apartments, sublets, and roommates. Average rent around campus is about $400-700 per month (amount subject to change).

Please check condition of lease and use pre-caution when committing to any housing, whether through an individual or a vendor, since you will be responsible to deal with any issue that may arise. OSU is unable to legally represent you should such situation arise.

The OSU Off-Campus and Commuter Student Services provides:

- Off-campus housing search engine
- Roommate search engine
- Off-campus housing search guide/tips

Classes

Classes at the Ohio State University are graded A to E. One semester credit hour requires 750 contact minutes per credit hour. Most business courses are 3 credit hours (approximately 38 contact hours) if a full semester class; 1.5 credits (approximately 19 contact hours) if a 7-week module; other courses at the university vary. 1000-4000 level courses are considered undergraduate level courses at OSU. Students must meet class prerequisites for each requested course to be enrolled in the class. More information is available on the FAQ section of our website:

<http://go.osu.edu/FCOBInboundFAQ>

Scroll down and open the "Course and Grade" tab.

Undergraduate exchange students must enroll in a minimum of 12 semester credit hours, of which 6 credits must be in the following departments; Business Administration (BUSADM), Finance (BUSFIN), Management Science (BUSMGT), Management & HR (BUSMHR), Marketing & Logistics (BUSML), or Accounting & MIS (ACCTMIS). Undergraduate exchange students cannot take MBA classes. Economics (ECON) is not in the Fisher College of Business; it is located in the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences. You may take such courses, but not as one of the required business classes. Students can take a maximum of 18 credit hours per semester depending on availability, but on average, enrollments are between 12-15 credits. You must fulfill this requirement each semester. Click on the link below to search for courses:

<http://buckeyelink.osu.edu/>

Scroll down to "Academics", and click the "Class Search" link.

Once enrolled in class you will have access to Carmen (<https://carmen.osu.edu/>), OSU's learning management system, to view your class syllabi, presentations, assignments, etc. to prepare for your class at OSU. You must be accepted as an exchange student by OSU to have access to the system.

Fisher Exchange Network (FEN)

FEN is a student organization that pairs incoming international exchange students with Fisher students. Exchange students are assigned one or two Fisher student mentors who assist incoming exchange students in many ways.

FEN Assistance

- Meet exchange students at the airport
- Answer basic questions about student life (studies, housing, facilities, etc.)
- Show exchange students around the city and campus
- Invite exchange students to on- and off-campus social and athletic events
- Participate in welcome and farewell activities
