Recent dissertations (2013-2016).

Abraham, Alissa, Beyoncé Broken Down: A Qualitative Feminist Explorations of Gender Constructions in the Music of Beyoncé.

Aleksiewicz, Nitai, The Cultural Motion of Pornography: Tracing ‘Truth’ in the Internet Era.

Bryan, Rebecca, The impact of the Catholic Church in the Irish Free State and the culture of Shame.

Corrigan, Ellen, The Fractured Self: Internalised oppression, symbolic violence and working-class women in the academy.

Cullivan, Cara, The Myriad and the Oddity: British Travel Writing, Revolutionary Processes, and Gender Politics in Eighteenth-Century France.

Demetriou, Lara, Vegan-Feminism: A Qualitative Analysis of Vegan Culture in Contemporary Ireland.

Doyle, Michelle, Tea and coffee culture in 18th-century representations and gender.

Downes, Sarah, All Hail ‘King’ Nidge: The Depiction of Masculinities and Femininities on Irish Television.

Fahy, Colette, Working it out: can a gender-specific approach in the Irish fitness industry increase women’s participation in physical activity?

Flynn, Andrew, A Theoretical Discourse Analysis of the Medico-Legal Regulation of Ex-Gay Identities in the USA.

Gibbons, Claire, A Gendered Look at Discriminatory Attitudes Towards the Irish, as Expressed through the Works of Erskine Nicol (1825-1904).

Grant, Jennifer, The social construction of hypermasculinity, gender identity and sexual violence.
Hamed, Mona, Using Islamic Doctrine to Deconstruct Misrepresentations of Muslims: ‘Otherness’, Anti-Muslim Prejudice and the Internet News Coverage of ‘ Honour’ Killing Cases in the US.

Haslett, Kate, ‘A Hidden Life’: Representations of Women during the Interwar Period.

Houston, Dearbhaile, Back to the Old House: Analysing the Home in Anne Enright’s The Forgotten Waltz, and The Green Road.

Magee, Doreen, Engaging men and boys in preventitive initiatives aimed at ending violence against women.

Murphy, Abigail, See me, not my disability. The Experiences of Women with a Physical Disability in Employment in County Mayo.

O’Connor, Michelle, Oscar’s Wild(e) Women and their World. A discourse analysis of the impact of the ‘separate spheres’ ideology on women’s agency as contributors to The Woman’s World magazine, 1888-1890.

Phelan, Joanne, The Representation of Masculinity in Shame Meadows film This is England.

Smyth, Rebecca, Unpacking attitudes to abortion: an analysis of the contemporary Irish abortion debate (2012-2014) in its historical context.

Tan, Simeng, Identifying women’s history with the body: exploring contemporary Chinese female installation art from the ‘female language’.

Trick, Jessica, Positive Masculinity Workshops as sexual assault prevention in UK Universities.

Wilson, Andrea, Hobby Lobby and the Question of Faith: Examining Religion in the US Supreme Court.

Wold, Kaylyn, You-tube makeup tutorials and the constructions of femininity.