

Beyond Athenocentrism Greek Cities' Responses to Athenian Institutional and Judicial Legacy in the so-called 'Hellenistic Polis Convergence'

15th June 2021

Chair: A. Erskine (University of Edinburgh)

13:10-13:50 – M. Mari (Università di Bari): Democratic institutions in the Hellenistic cities and the Athenian model: recent studies and debated issues
13:50-14:30 – N. Luraghi (University of Oxford): Writing the history of Hellenistic Athens

Chair: B. McGing (Trinity College Dublin)

14:50-15:30 – D. Amendola (Trinity College Dublin): Athens' contribution to the Hellenistic institutional koine: Some Further Considerations

15:30-16:10 – L. Rubinstein (Royal Holloway, University of London): Law-enforcement in the Hellenistic cities: Athenian influence, local practice or Pan-hellenic tradition? The process of praxis as a test case

16:10-16:50 – A. S. Chankowski (Université de Poitiers / HeRMA EA 3811): La diffusion des institutions éducatives dans le monde hellénistique: influence du modèle athénien?

Chair: C. Constantakopoulou (Birkbeck, University of London)

17:10-17:50 – M. Canevaro (University of Edinburgh): Psephophoria, honours and naturalisation around the Aegean: a case of Athenian institutional influence?

17:50-18:30 – J. Faguer (École française d'Athènes): Real security and property registers in the Aegean (3rd–2nd c. BCE): between Athenian legacy and new archival practices

16th June 2021

Chair: M. Cuypers (Trinity College Dublin)

13:00-13:40 – P. Ceccarelli (University College London): The long shadow of Athens? Dramatic performances in the Hellenistic city-states
13:40-14:20 – A. Meeus (Universität Mannheim): Hekataios of Abdera and the alleged Egyptian origins of Athens and the Eleusinian Mysteries

Chair: P. Paschidis (National Hellenic Research Foundation)

14:40-15:20 – B. Gray (Birkbeck, University of London): Fourth-century and early Hellenistic reconciliation and amnesty: reception of Athens 403 and other inspirations

15:20-16:00 – M. Simonton (Arizona State University): Demagogues in Hellenistic Greece: an Athenian export?

16:00-16:40 – S. Wallace (Trinity College Dublin): Royal interaction with Athenian institutions and ideology in the early Hellenistic period

Chair: N. Papazarkadas (University of California, Berkeley)

17:00-17:40 – F. Forster (Goethe Universität Frankfurt): Beyond Athens: Hellenistic 'biographical' decrees in praise of good citizens and their possible connections with the Athenian epigraphic habit

17:40-18:20 – C. Müller & J. Buffet (Université Paris Nanterre): Les affaires de Madame Nikareta: a sui generis model for financial, legal, and institutional practices in the Hellenistic Boeotian Confederacy?