Module Name	Elementary Greek II
ECTS Weighting	10 ECTS
Semester taught	Semester 2
Module staff	Dr Alastair Daly, dalya22@tcd.ie
Module Learning Outcomes with embedded Graduate Attributes	On successful completion of this module, students should be able to: LO1. Recognise and translate a substantial Attic Greek vocabulary LO2. Recognise the key features of the phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics and pragmatics of Attic Greek and discuss them as they appear in texts using appropriate linguistic terminology LO3. Translate unseen original Greek texts of limited difficulty into idiomatic English and motivate translation decisions LO4. Analyse Greek texts using literary-critical approaches, concepts and terms that are appropriate to their genre or text-type LO5. Relate a text's linguistic features, content, themes and values to its cultural-historical context LO6. Work effectively in small groups LO7. Effectively use e-learning tools and electronic resources to support independent language learning
Module Content	In this module, you will complete your study of the textbook and learn further key aspects of the grammar of Attic Greek (phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, pragmatics). You also study a variety of (increasingly less) adapted and original texts that will enable you to acquire a substantial vocabulary, and develop an appreciation of how Greek was used in different contexts over the centuries. You will encounter some of the many different ways in which ancient literary texts may be 'read', analysed, interpreted and translated, and explore the features of literary and non-literary texts in different genres and styles
