Module Name	Greek in Progress
ECTS Weighting	5 ECTS
Semester taught	Semester 1
Module Coordinator/s	Prof. Ahuvia Kahane
Module Learning Outcomes with embedded Graduate Attributes	On successful completion of this module, students should be able to: LO1. Manage an extensive Greek vocabulary LO2. Recognise and analyse complex grammatical and syntactical structures LO3. Translate passages of unadapted Greek texts from a range of genres and periods into idiomatic English, with attention to register and style LO4. Effectively use e-learning tools and electronic resources to support language study
Module Content	This module aims to consolidate your understanding of Greek grammar and pragmatics, further refine your translation, philological and critical skills, and broaden your familiarity with Greek idiom and style. Close analysis of texts from a range of periods and genres, including examples drawn from outside the traditional canon, will enable you by the end of the module to read Greek prose and verse with confidence and precision.
Teaching and Learning Methods	2 one-hour classes per week. Integrated, hybrid seminar activity, group-discussion, group-project, guided and independent face-to-face and online activities using interactive and non-interactive print and digital resources.
