Module Code	CLU33383
Module Name	Greek Close Reading with Project
ECTS Weighting	10 ECTS
Semester taught	Semester 1
Module Coordinator/s	Dr Alastair Daly, dalya22@tcd.ie
Module Learning Outcomes with embedded Graduate Attributes	On successful completion of this module, students should be able to: LO1. Fluently read Greek texts of moderate difficulty with the aid of dictionaries and commentaries LO2. Translate and analyse the prescribed text LO3. Produce a cohesive and fully-supported close reading of a given passage, including comment on style, register, rhetorical features and literary tropes LO4. Comment on the relation of the prescribed text to its historical, literary and cultural contexts LO5. Translate unseen Greek extracts of similar difficulty / genre, style or content as the studied Greek texts into idiomatic English LO6. Manage and time-manage an original project to its successful completion
Module Content	In this module students will be introduced to either a single-author text or a selection of texts from one or more different genres, including but not limited to poetry, comedy, philosophy, historiography, etc. Each class will focus on a different section of text or theme and will consist of a mix of translation, textual analysis, and discussion. Students will apply their experience in Greek grammar to close reading and analysis of ancient Greek texts. This year's module will focus on Aristophanes' Clouds. The project may be an essay or in creative format but must engage with the language of Greek comedy. Further guidance will be given in the project development meetings.
Teaching and Learning Methods	Two one-hour classes per week Five one-hour classes in alternate weeks for project development
