BD/21-22/012  Provost’s Report
The Provost advised Board members that she would like to discuss the planned phased return to campus and in-person teaching now that national health restrictions are lifting. She informed the Board that some communications from students and parents had been received regarding the current level of in-person teaching. The Provost also advised that she was aware that many members of staff have been working continuously throughout the Pandemic with little time for a break. She also acknowledged that there is room for a greater level of communication.

The Provost acknowledged the many good things that have been achieved during the Pandemic and particularly the significant contribution of the Corporate Services Division and for example the work of Estates and Facilities in providing outdoor facilities. The Provost welcomed the use of temporary facilities for in-person teaching and also noted that such facilities can accommodate more events for students and assist the return to activities for the societies and clubs. She noted that there was a firm plan in place to clear any backlog on commencement ceremonies and commended the recent in-person ceremonies which had taken place.

The Provost also commended the efforts of the Vice-Provost/Chief Academic Officer and the Interim Chief Operating Officer in trying to find solutions to any issues arising. She acknowledged the challenges for staff and students that are to come in the coming months as the restrictions are further lifted and a full return to in-person teaching is envisaged.

The Provost invited comments and suggestions from Board members.

A Board member noted the importance of ensuring consistency in timetables in the coming months and that any remaining space issues be addressed to facilitate the return to full delivery of in-person teaching. He noted that while the autonomy of Schools in timetabling should be respected an overall framework for the University is essential.

Agreeing with these comments, the Provost acknowledged the challenges being faced, noting that the Pandemic has added an extra layer of difficulty to a system where there may be other issues to be addressed.

The Vice-Provost/Chief Academic Officer advised that she will be working to develop a more streamlined process for the next academic year. She extended her sincere gratitude to the Heads of Schools, School Administrative Managers, Academic staff and the Professional staff for their hard work and assistance in ensuring continuity in teaching and research and in finding solutions to the issues. The Vice-Provost/Chief Academic Officer also acknowledged the good will of the College community and the desire to give the best experience possible to students.

Following comments from a Board member, the importance of good communication with all members of the College community and the excellent work of Estates and Facilities to date was acknowledged.

A Board member noted the need for a review of the resources, particularly staffing, across the Schools and that there are some existing issues arising from the timetables and the Provost advised that the Vice-Provost/Chief Academic is addressing these matters.

The Provost, responding to comments from a Board member in relation to communication and engagement, advised that the Dean of Graduate Studies is scheduling meetings with the Directors of Teaching and Learning (Postgraduate) and the Senior Lecturer/Dean of Undergraduate Studies is similarly scheduling meetings with the Directors of Teaching and Learning (Undergraduate) to enhance communications and further explore any issues that may be arising.

In response to comments from a Board member outlining the challenges facing the different Schools due to the nature of their respective disciplines and teaching needs, the Provost advised that issues are being considered on a school by school basis and a balance will be required.

A Board member welcomed the 2-stage approach to the resumption of in-person teaching which the University has adopted noting the importance of being cautious and responsible. The increased pressure on staff and increase in fatigue due to a decrease in time to facilitate leave was acknowledged and the need to address longer term problems such as staffing was also acknowledged.

In response to comments from Board members, the Vice-Provost/Chief Academic Officer clarified that there is no suggestion of revisiting timetables at this time but rather it is proposed to work within the current allocations to maximise the student experience and for the 2nd part of the Semester.

The Provost also noted that the Vice-Provost/Chief Academic Officer is actively trying to identify extra teaching space to help the schools.

The Provost concluded the item by encouraging Board members to consider what can be done to help the full return to in-person activities on campus and to share any relevant information they receive with her.

BD/21-22/013 Draft Outline Board Work Programme 2021/22

Professor Seery joined the meeting during this item.

The Provost introduced the item noting that this was a draft proposal and that she welcomed input from Board members on the document.

The Secretary to the College made the presentation dated 15 September 2021 based on his memorandum dated 8 September 2021, which had been circulated in advance. He also noted that the outline work programme for the Board was in draft format and that, following discussion, it would be brought to the October meeting of the Board for further consideration.

Incorporating any amendments approved at subsequent Board meetings
With reference to the Board Review Working Group Report, the Secretary to the College read out the recommendations as contained in the Report in respect of an annual Board work programme. He then presented the draft work programme, which had been circulated, explaining the various colour codes and the general principles underpinning the document.

The Provost thanked the Secretary to the College and opened the item for comments and suggestions.

A Board member, thanking the Provost for opening up a mechanism whereby Board members can suggest items for consideration on the Board Agenda, noted the importance of introducing a more robust discussion on strategy and suggested that inclusion of a significant item on academic and professional staff promotions on the agenda would also be beneficial.

The Provost, speaking in respect of the promotions process in the University, advised that further consideration of the process will be undertaken and that active discussions with Heads of School and all areas of the University are required to improve the process. She also noted that as this is a strategic matter it will be important to consider how best it is considered by the Council and the Board.

A Board member welcomed the draft work programme and the proposal of having a structured plan for the Board for the year ahead. The Board member also welcomed the inclusion of an ‘Away Day’ and suggested that it might take place earlier in the year, approximately half-way through the academic year. The importance of the Board periodically monitoring the implementation of the Strategic Plan was also noted. The Board member also suggested that consideration might be given to looking at operational issues that need to be addressed such as timetabling, resourcing and promotions. In addition, he suggested that planning and implementation considerations could benefit from an enhanced focus at Board meetings.

The Provost acknowledged the comments from the Board member and agreed that it is important to determine the optimum way to conduct strategic planning, implementation and associated budgeting.

A Board member, welcoming the draft work programme, having served as a member of the Finance Committee, was of the view that the current Baseline Budgeting Model (BBM) requires review and that further consideration should be given to appropriately resourcing schools and units. An apparent disconnect at times between strategic planning and practical implementation was also highlighted.

The Provost, responding to comments from a Board member advised that the Bursar/Director of Strategic Innovation and the Interim Chief Operating Officer are compiling a dash board of all strategic capital projects so that the Board may be informed and have sight of interdependencies, financial and resource risks. She also acknowledged the importance of staff and student mental wellbeing, noting that it underpins the delivery of all strategies.

A Board member suggested, and the Provost agreed, that it would be beneficial to provide the Board with a quarterly financial review and financial forecasts with the possible inclusion of key performance indicators and targets.

Responding to comments from the Board member in respect of a greater focus on Internationalisation being included in the Board work programme, the Vice-Provost for Global Relations advised that it is envisaged that several such items will be brought to the Board over the course of the coming year.

In response to comments from a Board member, the Registrar advised that the Statutes and Schedules Working Party will be reviewing the recommendations of the Report from the Review of the Provost’s Appointment Process and will be bringing forward proposals for the Board’s consideration in the coming months.

Responding to comments from a Board member the Provost acknowledged the potential for increasing the ways by which all members of the University can contribute to strategic discussions and proposals.

Incorporating any amendments approved at subsequent Board meetings

She advised the Board that the Trinity College Risk Register 2020-2021 has been reviewed in detail by Faculty Deans, Heads of School, Chief Officers, and Heads of Division, as well as being presented to the Risk Management Group, the Executive Officer Group (EOG) for their review and approval, and has been noted by the Audit Committee.

Ms Carmichael summarised the top 6 categories of risk for the Board noting that Covid-19 is the predominant issue impacting the majority of risks identified in 2020-2021. She also advised that Financial Risk continues to be significant albeit there has been a reduction in the number of financial risks identified from 25 to 20 in 2020/2021.

Ms Carmichael advised that Operational Risk remains the largest risk category across the University with very little movement on the volume of the risks identified in this category, while Teaching & Learning Risk has increased in 2020-2021 due to COVID-19, although significant actions have taken place to mitigate these risks particularly with respect to providing a continued high standard of learning to students.

She concluded by providing an overview of the breakdown of risks per rating.

The Provost thanked Ms Carmichael and opened the item for comments and questions.

In response to queries from a Board member, Ms Carmichael clarified the ratings used for the risks noting the risks presented were from a snapshot in time in June 2021 and that some changes are likely to have occurred since that time.

The Provost, responding to comments from a Board member in relation to the pension deficit issue, noted that the Risk Register also factors in the likelihood that a risk will happen and acknowledged that further consideration can be given to this issue at a later date.

A Board member welcoming the Risk Register and commending the Chief Risk Officer and her team for their continuing work on this item, suggested that it would be beneficial to see an overarching summary of where the University is positioned from a risk point of view taking all of the identified risks into account and to have clarity on the appetite for risk.

The Provost, in response to comments from a Board member, noted that further consideration could be given to the sustainability of new courses and the importance of considered growth was acknowledged.

In response to comments from Board members, Ms Carmichael advised that further consideration will be given to the pension deficit issue and that consideration will also be water.

The Bursar/Director of Strategic Innovation also advised that some issues between the Berkeley
Library and Zoology building have also been addressed which will reduce the likelihood of flooding to the Berkeley basement.

The Bursar/Director of Strategic Innovation advised that demolition works had resumed in May having been paused for 17 weeks due to Covid-19 restrictions. She informed the Board in the South West corner of the site archaeological finds of low significance and finds of materials used in anatomy teaching from 19th Century had been uncovered. The contractor is currently working with the Archaeologists to record and remove the finds from the site.

The Bursar/Director of Strategic Innovation advised the Board that due to the time required to remove the archaeological findings, a slight delay to the timeline for the demolition works is envisaged. She also noted the approval received from the Higher Education Authority (HEA) to proceed with issuing the main contract and informed the Board that a sod turning ceremony had taken place on 29 July 2021 with Minister Simon Harris, TD, and the Martin Naughton family in attendance.

The Bursar/Director of Strategic Innovation advised the Board that there has been no change to the funding and budget for the project and summarised the next steps of the project. She concluded by would raise the query separately after the meeting.

Responding to comments and queries from Board members, Professor O’Kelly advised the Board that a meeting with the Contractor was scheduled to examine how and when the project will be completed.
