

Human Rights in the Korean Peninsula: Challenges to Peacebuilding

G16, Irish School of Ecumenics
ISE/Loyola Inst. Building,
Trinity College Dublin

29 July, 2015, 5.30pm-7.30pm

Organized by Centre for Post-Conflict Justice,
Trinity College Dublin

Guest Speakers: Dr. Bo-Hyuk Suh, Seoul National University
Dr. Rajiv Narayan, International Commission against the Death Penalty

Dr. Bo-hyuk Suh is a Professor at the Institute for Peace and Unification Studies, Seoul National University. He was an Expert Adviser on North Korean human rights for the National Human Rights Commission of Korea. His research focuses on peace and human rights issues in the Korean Peninsula from the perspective of international relations. He has been providing advice to both governmental and non-governmental organisations on human rights..

Dr. Rajiv Narayan is a Senior Policy Advisor at the International Commission Against the Death Penalty. He worked as a researcher for Amnesty International for thirteen years (until 2014), and produced work of international repute. He covered one of the most challenging regions concerning human rights in the world – East Asia, where he researched and reported extensively on North Korea, South Korea, and Japan.

All are welcome

To register, email:

Prof. Jude Lal Fernando: fernanla@tcd.ie (085-156-2985)

Dr. Dong-Jin Kim: kimdj@tcd.ie (085-215-8980)