Romanians in the Great War
As part of the special programme celebrating the Romanian Centenary (1918-2018), the Ambassador of Romania, Manuela Breazu, cordially invites you to:

The opening of the photo exhibition “Romanians in the Great War”:
The exhibition follows Romania’s participation in the First World War, from the eager years of neutrality (1914-1916) through the fierce battles of 1916 on the Entente side, the painful retreat to Moldavia and the striking victories of 1917 to the momentous victory of 1918, which offered a strategic foundation to the political unification of all Romanian provinces and the creation of a modern, democratic state.

Concert by acclaimed musicians Adrian Mantu (cello) and Dermot Dunne (accordion) with Romanian music.

Programme:
Music from Transylvania: ‘Romanian Dances’ by Béla Bartók
Music from Moldavia: ‘Nocturne’ and ‘Saltarello’ by George Enescu
Music from Wallachia: ‘Peasant Dance’ by Constantin Dimitrescu, ‘Pastorale’ and ‘Dance’ by Vasile Jianu
