

2.11.1
Opening Questions
	Question	Help Text	Guidance
2.11.1.1	Have all Trinity researchers (staff and students) working on the project completed the College Data Protection (GDPR) training module?	Trinity staff and students who will process personal data must complete data protection (GDPR) training module. GDPR training module Research Integrity training module (include link to module when available).	Trinity researchers must complete the College Data Protection (GDPR) training module - (pass mark is 80/100) and provide evidence of successful completion of the module. Submission of a research ethics application will not be permitted without inclusion of a Trinity GDPR training module certificate of completion which can be downloaded from the module web page.
	Enter date of data protection training		