2.11.2.11	Is the data transferred outside of the UK and EEA? If 'yes' you must contact the Data Protection Office.	The GDPR imposes restrictions on the transfer of personal data to third countries or international organisations located outside of the European Economic Area ('EEA') and UK.	The GDPR imposes restrictions on the transfer of personal data to third countries or international organisations located outside of the European Economic Area ('EEA') and UK. These restrictions are in place to ensure that the level of protection and accountability afforded by the GDPR is not undermined. 'EEA' means the members of the European Union's internal market and Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway. Note: the UK includes Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales. Personal data may only be transferred from Trinity College to entities situated outside of the EEA and UK in compliance with the conditions for transfer as set out under Chapter V GDPR. https://gdpr-info.eu/chapter-5/ Staff and students intending to transfer personal data outside of the EEA, for example; using third party processors or sharing personal data with international research partners, should contact dataprotection@tcd.ie for support.
