

SU Disability Awareness Week Schedule of Events

Day & Time	Event	Event description	Location & Registration
Monday 29 th Nov – Friday 3 rd Dec	'Defining Disability' Art Exhibition	As part of Disability Awareness Week, the SU and Disability Service / Ability Coop are holding a week-long Art Exhibition called 'Defining Disabilities' in which art inspired by the many definitions and meanings of disabilities are explored through artistic means. There is also a supplementary podcast being run, so the exhibition is accessible to all - and students can enjoy the art audibly as well.	JCR Hamilton space, ground floor (where old bank was) – open for viewing from 12 pm. Podcast will be available on Spotify https://open.spotify.com/show/OFLK4T7VhbBWtx4jpuFyYG – officially launched Monday evening. No registration required
Tuesday 30 th November 2 PM	Movember awareness Stall	Mental illness is a prominent form of invisible disability. As the final day of Movember falls within Disability Awareness Week we wanted to include a dedication to men's health, in particular mental health awareness.	Arts Block No registration required
Tuesday 30 th November 6:30 pm	Come to Council!	Disability awareness week is a combination of raising awareness amongst the college population, and also making the college environment more open and accessible to students with disabilities. The third SU council takes place Tuesday 30th, so the SU will share some information for students on what council is, why it affects them, and encourage students to attend council for the first time!	Ed Burke Lecture Theatre / TCDSU Facebook live stream No registration for Facebook live stream. In-person registration link: https://fixr.co/event/944063427 (select 'general release ticket' option)

		On the night SU PTOs will position themselves around campus to meet with students, offer info on council and escort students to the venue (if attending in person).	Attendees must have registered at the link, and be able to show a COVID vaccination cert and ID upon entry.
Wednesday 1 st December 12 pm	Coffee morning (weather and COVID situation dependent)	The coffee morning is a safe, welcoming place for students to come together during disability awareness week. Here we will open the floor to discussion on everything and anything to do with disabilities. It is a relaxed, welcoming event for all students.	Gazebos No registration required
Thursday 2 nd Dec	First instalment of SU 'Intro to the Services Series'. 'SU's Intro to the Disability Service'.	This 'intro to the services series' was created to help heighten awareness of the supports and services available to students at Trinity. This series aims to provide quick videos with essential information of services such as what they do, and how to avail of the services. A major aspect of the videos is showing where the service is based and also showing some of the key staff that work in the service. The goal is to familiarise students with the services and make them more visible and more approachable.	Video will be launched on SU social media (@TCDSU) No registration required.
Thursday 2 nd Dec 6:30 pm	Uncovering Invisible Disabilities: Talk with Founder and Director of Invisible Disabilities Ireland	Invisible disabilities, or 'hidden' disabilities are disabilities which are not immediately apparent, yet make up a large proportion of students' disabilities in Trinity. Founder and director of Invisible Disabilities Ireland, Emily Larkin, will be giving a talk on understanding what an invisible disability is, as well as sharing stories as to	Zoom Register in advance for this meeting: https://tcd- ie.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJAoc- grpzgpE9RFkLalU516pkoMi7teRbny overcoming invisible disabilities. This will be an exciting, engaging and informative event, not to be missed!	After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting. Event will also be recorded.

Friday 3 rd Dec	UN International Day of People with Disabilities	Today the Trinity Disability community have a number of events taking place for UN Day of Disabilities. The SU will promote these events through its weekly email and social media. The college will also be turning purple (#PurpleLights21) in celebration of the day, including purple lights and a big social media presence.
Friday 3 rd Dec All Day	Quiet Day at the Gym	To mark the end of Disability Week, Trinity Sport will be hosting a Gym Quiet Day for the entirety of Friday December 3 rd . In a similar manner to our daily quiet hours, we hope to provide a more inclusive environment for students with sensory disabilities, and to increase awareness of the subject. Music in the gym will be muted throughout, with a graphic on the screens notifying our members of the initiative.	Trinity Gym Book a slot in the gym at https://trinitysportbookings.tcd.ie/
Friday 3 rd Dec 5 pm	Day of Disabilities Reception	After the turning on of the purple lights, and in celebration of the day of events for UN Day of People with Disabilities, a reception will be held for all parties involved in making the day such a success!	Venue tbc (due to COVID concerns) Invitations and updated further information will be circulated during the week.