Why Ireland?

Ireland is an English speaking country.

Irish has the 3rd highest quality of life in the world according to a recent UN report: www.worldpopulationreview.com/country-rankings/hdi-by-country

Ireland is friendly and welcoming. 13th on the World Happiness Index

Dublin has been named the 7th best city in the world to visit in 2022. (Lonely Planet, 2022)

Ireland is ranked the 3rd most peaceful country in the world. (Global Peace Index 2022)

---

European hub for innovation and industry is based in Dublin: Google, Facebook, Microsoft, Intel, Pfizer and HP are based here.

Trinity’s central location makes it highly accessible for all forms of public transport: tram, rail and bus stops are right outside the University.

Dublin airport is 13km (8 miles) from the campus and is directly accessible via bus or taxi. www.tcd.ie/maps

Postgraduate Collaborative Programme

Spend the second year of your masters programme at Trinity College Dublin, Ireland’s leading university, and graduate with two world renowned postgraduate qualifications. After completing one year of your masters at BFSU, you will then join Trinity to complete your second year before returning to BFSU to complete your final year of study. While at Trinity, students from BFSU have the opportunity to join one of a wide variety of postgraduate programmes in the Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences.

Why Study Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences at Trinity?

Trinity is Ireland’s leading university, steeped in history with a reputation for excellence in education and research. While our campus dates back over four hundred years, our research facilities and institutes sit right in the twenty first century. The University has produced generations of outstanding graduates. Some of the most famous people in Irish history have been educated here including the writers Oscar Wilde and Samuel Beckett.

The Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Science is the largest and most diverse in the University, comprising 12 Schools and a total of 25 Disciplines. A large number of internationally regarded taught masters programmes are offered by the Schools. The Faculty is also home to a major interdisciplinary research institute in the Arts and Humanities, the Trinity Long Room Hub, and to Trinity Research in Social Sciences (TRiSS), a broad-based endeavour encompassing the best of our research and thinking in the Social Sciences.

International Dimension

Trinity attracts a global community of academics dedicated to addressing challenges of vital importance to the world around us and has a diverse student body with students from 116 different countries. Chinese students are the third largest cohort of international students at Trinity from outside the EU. As Ireland’s oldest and highest-ranking university, Trinity strives to educate global citizens who will shape the world’s future.

Student Life at Trinity

Immerse yourself in a broad range of sports clubs and student societies and get a real sense of the ‘Trinity Experience’.

Your first days at Trinity

Freshers’ Week
Trinity offers orientation to all new postgraduate and undergraduate students prior to the start of the academic year during a week known as Freshers’ Week. It is a chance for you to meet your classmates, attend information sessions and sign up to one of many clubs and societies at Trinity. Find out more at: www.tcd.ie/students/orientation

A specific International Postgraduate Student Orientation takes place before teaching commences. Details are available at: www.tcd.ie/students/orientation/postgraduates

Trinity in Twelve Weeks
The “Trinity in Twelve Weeks” virtual programme aims to continue your orientation during your first semester and help your transition to university life. The programme has a new theme every week, from study and exam skills to how to look after yourself while at university. Your mentors will be in touch with you every week to let you know what the week’s theme is and to arrange events and activities. Find out more at: www.tcd.ie/students/orientation/twelve-weeks

Trinity Clubs & Societies
As a student at Trinity, you will be able to choose from over 50 sports clubs including aikido, basketball, Gaelic football, surfing, hockey, rugby, soccer, table tennis, badminton and many more. You will also automatically be a member of our Sports Centre. The Sports Centre is where the majority of our fitness classes and programmes take place, 7 days a week. Facilities include a 25-metre swimming pool, climbing wall and a fully equipped gym. www.tcd.ie/sport

At Trinity, we have 120 student societies which constitute some of the most dynamic and active university student societies in Ireland, allowing you to develop new skills or put your existing ones into action with everything from the International Student Society to the Zoological Society. Find out more at: www.trinitysocieties.ie

Trinity Education
After the excitement of Freshers’ Week, teaching term starts, and you will be settling into your course. Most of your classes at Trinity will be a mixture of lecturers, tutorials and some practicals. Tutorials are less formal and usually take place in smaller groups, giving you a chance to delve deeper into the studied topics with your classmates and teaching assistants.
Career Opportunities

Our graduates are highly sought after by employers across all sectors and many have gone on to successful careers around the globe. See below for just a few examples of the diverse organisations that have recruited Trinity graduates in recent years. The Trinity Careers Service supports students in exploring their career ambitions for the future and planning how to achieve them. Find out more about the Careers Service at: www.tcd.ie/careers
