BEYOND A GREAT EDUCATION
Community is a key element of the Trinity education and every student can benefit from a wide variety of available supports. The truly accessible and dedicated professors encourage students to actively engage in University life and the city beyond the campus gates. A core aspect of the Trinity education is the potential for co- and extra-curricular activities which broaden and reinforce the experience of a Trinity graduate.

OUTSIDE THE LECTURE THEATRE
- 200+ student societies, publications and sports clubs
- Oldest student societies in the world: ‘The Phil’ and ‘The Hist’, rival debating societies, dating back over 300 years.
- Oldest student newspaper in Ireland, founded in 1953.
- 50+ sports clubs welcoming members of all levels.

FOSTERING INDEPENDENT THINKERS
Student well-being is extremely important at Trinity, consequently the university offers dedicated personal support and well-being services. Trinity is one of the world’s only universities to provide all undergraduate students with a personal tutor - a faculty member who can guide students through their chosen academic pathway.

THINK TRINITY FOR COMMUNITY

RESEARCH CENTRE ENVIRONMENT
Staff and students at Trinity conduct research at the frontiers of their disciplines. Trinity is committed to giving students the opportunity to work with and learn from global leaders in research and to benefit from their experience and networks.
