Faculty of Health Sciences - Faculty Forum on Research
Wednesday 4th February 2015, Tercentenery Hall, TBSI, Pearse Street

Time	Session	Speaker
16.00	Establishing Context The Dean will introduce today's Faculty Forum and outline the schedule of research-focused events in the Faculty.	Professor Mary McCarron Dean, Faculty of Health Sciences
16.10	Harnessing the H Index As the season of University Rankings is upon us, Niamh and Ashling will identify key ways to maximise your research impact using tools such as Altmetrics, TCD RSS, TARA, Web of Science, InCites, Scopus, Google Scholar and ORCHID. A clinic will be available during the networking reception to assist with specific queries.	Ms Niamh Brennan, Assistant Librarian Ms Ashling Hayes, Assistant Librarian
16.35	Promoting your Research to the Media – the benefits, impact and what we can do to help Yolanda will present the services and assistance available from Media Relations to support you in promoting your research to the media. She will give an overview of what is possible and provide examples of impact resulting from media outreach. Yolanda will be available during the networking reception to assist with specific queries	Ms Yolanda Kennedy Press Officer
16.50	Clinical Research Facility (CRF) at SJH Michael will give an overview of current activity in the CRF and discuss opportunities for involvement across the disciplines within Health Sciences.	Professor Michael Gill Clinical Director, CRF
Establishing links and opportunities for collaborative research in the Faculty
17.00	School of Dental Science	Dr Gary Moran Director of Research
17.10	School of Medicine	Professor James O'Donnell Director of Research
17.20	School of Nursing & Midwifery	Dr Gabrielle McKee Director of Research
17.30	School of Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences	Professor Anne-Marie Healy Head Of School
17.40	Open Forum with Q&A Session
18.00	Networking Reception in the Knowledge Exchange
Save the Date: The Faculty will host a Research Day on Thurs September 17th 2015, 1-7pm		