

Trinity Centre for Early Modern History

Research Seminar Series Michaelmas Term 2021

Seminars will take place on Mondays at 4.00pm via a Zoom link provided by the Trinity Long Room Hub Arts and Humanities Research Institute.

Please note that you must register to attend each seminar. You can find the registration details at <https://www.tcd.ie/trinitylongroomhub/whats-on/upcoming.php>

- |             |   |
|-------------|---|
| 4 October   | Joseph Clarke, Susan Flavin and Patrick Walsh (TCD) , 'Reflections on ongoing research in early modern history'              |
| 11 October  | Scott Breuninger (Virginia Commonwealth University) , Rethinking George Berkeley's legacy                                    |
| 18 October  | Kunyan Zheng, Sho Makino, Liam O'Rourke (TCD) , Panel discussion on PhD projects in early modern history at TCD              |
| 25 October  | No Seminar - Public Holiday   |
| 1 November  | Patrick Hayes (TCD) , 'Visitors and violence: fisheries in sixteenth-century Ireland'  |
| 8 November  | Beat Kümin (Warwick) , 'How much is too much? Negotiating boundaries of excess in early modern drinking cultures'            |
| 15 November | Sophie Nicholls (Oxford) , 'Franco-papal relations and the paradox of rights in early modern France'                         |
| 22 November | John Brewer (California Institute of Technology) , 'Networks in history: A critical approach'                                |
| 29 November | Rachael Scally (Edinburgh) , 'Extraordinary knowledge and monstrous bodies: the pursuit of curiosity in Ireland, 1683 –1784' |

Convenors: Robert Armstrong, Joseph Clarke, Susan Flavin, Graeme Murdock, Jane Ohlmeyer, Micheál Ó Siochrú, Patrick Walsh

Please e-mail joseph.clarke@tcd.ie if you have any questions.

Twitter @earlytcd