

Trinity Centre for Early Modern History

Research Seminar Series 2018-19

Seminars take place at 5.00pm on Mondays in the Neill Lecture Theatre in the Long Room Hub building, Trinity College. All are welcome.

Michealmas Term

- |              |  |
|--------------|--|
| 24 September | Dr David Brown (TCD) 'From Colonisers to Slaves – the Irish in Barbados 1640-1659'  |
| 01 October   | Dr Brendan Twomey (TCD) 'Industrious tradesmen'; Swift's micro-credit scheme and the development of the Irish economy'                        |
| 08 October   | Mr Colin Armstrong (QUB) 'A Laudian in Ulster: The Irish career of Jeremy Taylor, 1658 to 1667'   |
| 15 October   | Dr Patrick Walsh (TCD) 'Soldiers, sugar and spirits: patterns of taxation in eighteenth-century Ireland'                                      |
| 22 October   | Study Week - No seminar  |
| 29 October   | Public Holiday - No seminar  |
| 05 November  | Ms Bethany Marsh (Nottingham) Irish' refugees and the nature of migration: an examination of refugee migration after the 1641 Irish rebellion |
| 12 November  | Dr Naomi McAreavey (UCD) 'The Female Networks of the First Duchess of Ormonde'  |
| 19 November  | Dr John McAleer (Southampton) 'Crossing the line: Ceremonies, rituals, and rites of passage on Atlantic voyages in the Age of Sail'           |

- 28 January Dr Liam Chambers (MIC), Competing communities: Irish colleges, clergy and students in Paris, 1660-1685'
- 04 February Dr Ruth Canning (Liverpool-Hope University) The Baron of Delvin and Frontier Identity in Late Elizabethan Ireland
- 11 February Dr Tara Hamling (Birmingham) Visual Culture in Early Modern England
- 18 February Professor Guy Rowlands (St Andrews) The Sinews of War, the Sun King, and the Financial Burdens and Perils of Being a Superpower"
- 25 February No Seminar
- 04 March Study Week
- 11 March Prof. Karen Harvey (Birmingham) Epochs of Embodiment: Eighteenth-Century Body Politics and the Material Body
- 18 March Public Holiday
- 25 March Prof. John Walter (Essex) A Tale of Two Cities: Galway, Waterford and the 1641 Rising
- 01 Apr. Dr Eamon Darcy (Maynooth) TBC
- 08 Apr. Trinity Centre for Early Modern History Annual Lecture
Prof. Ciaran Brady (TCD) 'Addressing Brendan Bradshaw'