

Centre for Early Modern History Research Seminar Series Hilary Term 2021

Seminars will take place at 4.00p.m. each Monday through a Zoom link provided by the Trinity Long Room Hub Arts & Humanities Research Institute

Registration details are at <https://www.tcd.ie/trinitylongroomhub/whats-on/upcoming.php>

- 08 February Dr Leonie Hannan (QUB) A Culture of Curiosity: Scientific Enquiry in the Eighteenth-Century Home'
- 15 February Mr Andrew Keefe (Harvard) Empire, Race, and Criminal Justice in Early Modern Ireland.
- 22 February Dr Padhraig Higgins (Mercer County College, New Jersey) The Chimney Doctor at Channel Row: The Dublin House of Industry in the 1790s
- 1 March Mr David Briscoe (TCD) "The debt of every good citizen": The philanthropic career of Claude Clochar, 1790 - Year V
- 8 March Dr Leanne Calvert (University of Hertfordshire) I am a man and a minister": Regulating ministerial misbehaviour in the Atlantic world, c.1717-1830
- 15 March Reading Week
- 22 March Ms Kathleen McCrudden (Yale) Égalité, fraternité et — individualité? Sophie de Grouchy, moral republicanism, and the history of French liberalism. 1785-1815
- 29 March Dr Sean Kelsey (University of Buckingham) A remonstrance of divers remarkable passages: colonialist intervention in a metropolitan revolution
- 5 April Bank Holiday
- 12 April Prof. Sarah Covington (CUNY) The Henchmen": Remembering and Forgetting Oliver Cromwell's Commanders in Ireland
- 19 April Professor Marjolein t'Hart (Huygens Institute, The Hague) Limits of Napoleon's powers. The resilience of Dutch overseas trade networks during the Continental System

Convenors Professor Jane Ohlmeyer, Professor Micheál Ó Siochrú, Dr Robert Armstrong, Dr Joseph Clarke, Dr Susan Flavin, Dr Graeme Murdock, and Dr Patrick Walsh Twitter @earlytcd
Please email walshp9@tcd.ie if you have any questions