Student Support Services

This factsheet covers the main student support services and explains any special arrangements that are in place for students in Belfast.

Graduate Students Union
The Graduate Students Union (GSU) is the main body representing postgraduate students at Trinity. GSU has linked up with the nearby Queen’s SU so that Trinity students at the Belfast campus can join Queen’s clubs and societies.

Please note this arrangement does not include use of Queen’s advice services. If you need advice on any issue whether academic or personal, you must contact Trinity student support services.

Trinity Sport and Queen’s PEC link up
Trinity Sport has an arrangement with Queen’s sports centre (PEC) to cover the cost of membership for Belfast students. This will be set up for individual students at orientation.

Student Counselling Service
The Student Counselling Service can offer counselling appointments by phone for off-campus students. Please explain that you are student at the School of Religion in Belfast.
