K

By Bernardo Kucinski

Translated by Sue Branford from the Portuguese and published by LAB, K tells the story of a man searching for his daughter, who disappears under mysterious circumstances during Brazil's violent military dictatorship. K was shortlisted for the 2015 International IMPAC Dublin Literary Award.

"Few tales have left such an impression on me, both for the tragic force of the narrative and for the feeling of revolt that it arouses." - Jacob Guinsburg (Editora Perspectiva)
