

PROGRAMME

Decision-making in an Uncertain Time. Should you always obey your conscience?

Friday June 10th, 2022

Venue: Loyola Institute, Trinity College Dublin (G16)

PROGRAMME DETAILS:

- | | |
|--------------------|--|
| 10.00 am | Welcome Redemptorist Provincial, Fr Dan Baragry CSsR |
| 10.10 am | Prof. Raphael Gallagher – Conscience and Truth |
| 11.00 am | Prof. Stefania Tutino – Early Modern Uncertainty: Reason, Conscience, and Belief in Post-Reformation Catholicism |
| 12 noon – 12.15 pm | Stretch break |
| 12.15 pm | Prof. Desmond Ryan - Conscientious Objection in an Uncertain Time: New Challenges in Employment Law |
| 1.15 – 2 pm | Lunch |
| 2.00 pm | Prof. Patrick Hannon - Conscience, Law, and Politics |
| 3.00 pm – 3.30 pm | Tea/Coffee |
| 3.30 pm | Prof. Fáinche Ryan - Thomas Deman: Prudentia and Conscience ;
Prof. Cornelius Casey – Acting out of hope, not out of conscience |
| 4.30 pm | Closing Panel Discussion |

Generously sponsored by Dublin Province, Irish Redemptorist