

ECU33012 Economic Analysis B

Module Information
Module Code	ECU33012
Module Title	Economic Analysis B
Department	Economics
Year Group	Junior Sophister
Module Personnel	Michael Wycherley
Academic Year	2026-27
Credit Weighting	5 Credits
Semester	Semester 2
Contact Hours	2 lectures per week & 4 tutorials

Module Content
Module Description	This module builds on the foundations of ECU22011 & ECU22012 Intermediate Economics, developing some of the topics from that module, and introducing some new ones. These include Macroeconomics: intertemporal consumption and labour supply; investment theory; money demand; the analysis of business cycles; monetary policy; fiscal policy.
Module Learning Aims	The broad aims of the module (optional)
Learning Outcomes	• Be actively conversant with the terminology of macroeconomics; Interpret macroeconomic data; • Synthesize a broad range of topics in modern macroeconomics
Indicative Reading / Resources	A reading list will be provided

Assessment
Assessment Components	Assignment 30%, exam 70%

Assessment

Assessment Details

Late assignment submissions that have not been agreed in writing beforehand will be penalized 10% per day.

Additional Information

Prerequisites

ECU22011 & ECU22012

Co-requisites

None

Any other information

None