Module Outline:

This module provides a comprehensive treatment of the field of international macroeconomics. This is one of the classical subjects in economics and is an attractive module choice for senior sophister students that wish to develop analytical skills for interpreting a wide set of issues in international macroeconomics. The module provides a survey of all the main topics in international macroeconomics, supplemented by applications to key contemporary policy issues.

This module will cover the balance of payments, international capital flows and exchange rate determination. In addition, it will analyse macroeconomic policies for open economies; exchange rate regimes; sovereign debt; currency and financial crises; and global interdependence.

Module Learning Outcomes:

- Learning Outcomes: knowledge of international macroeconomic models
- analytical skill in the evaluation of international macroeconomic policies
- capability in the interpretation of international macroeconomic data
