What does inclusion mean to me?

- ‘Feeling like a welcomed and valued member of the community’.
- ‘Being included means being part of a group.’
- ‘Choice and control over decisions that affect me.’
- ‘Going to the Buttery, meeting up with friends.’
- ‘Understanding you are a person like everyone else.’
- ‘Feeling like you are heard.’
- ‘Being together with people from different counties/places.’
- ‘Taking the time to listen to others in order to understand their needs/experiences.’

Developed for the Trinity-INC Student Partner Programme in partnership with students from the Trinity Centre for People with Intellectual Disabilities (TCPID)