

French

Module descriptors for Inbound Students.

Name	The Making of the Banlieues: Identity and Representation on the Margins
Code	FRU33102
Semester	2
ECTS credits	5
Coordinator	Dr Ashley Harris HARRISA6@tcd.ie
Pre-requisite	None

Learning Outcomes

On completion of this module students should have:

- Improved competence in critical analysis of a variety of primary and secondary material in French including press, political speeches, mainstream film and grassroots expressions in text and image.
- Development of skills in comparative studies and critical analysis of representational constructs.
- Interdisciplinary engagement with critical approaches from Geography, History, Politics and Cultural studies.
- Greater knowledge of the history of the banlieues and the various forms of its representation.
- Communication and analysis skills on contemporary social and political issues and their representation across media forms.

Assessment

One essay of 2000 words.