

Dear Professor OSullivan,

Renaming the Berkeley Library is a shocking idea. Those who propose it are imposing modern sensibilities on the coarser mores of another era. The bishop's genius is an adornment to Trinity, and the idea of expunging his name is truly abhorrent. I hope you do your duty by the country and civility and oppose these destructive vandals.

Best wishes for the New Year.

Dr Justin Basquille,

Consultants Psychiatrist,

10 Harley Street,

London,

W1G 9PF.