

Texts I | PIU22061

Year	Senior Fresh
ECTS Credits	10
Contact Hours	22 Lectures
Pre-requisite	None
Semester	1
Module Leader & Lecturer	Dr Rachel Handley
Contact Email	handleyr@tcd.ie

Module Outline:

There are two components to this module, both are taught by Dr Handley. This module is an opportunity to explore these topics and the two main texts in rich philosophical depth.

Component 1:

Component 1 is on J. L. Mackie's Inventing Right and Wrong and will explore metaethical and moral theories, and their problems.

Component 2:

Component 2 is on Elizabeth Barnes' The Minority Body, and will explore contemporary debates in the Philosophy of Disability.

Assessment:

Essay

1 essay for each component. Each essay is worth 25%.

Each essay is 1500 words max.

Exam

2 exam questions, answer 1 question for each component.

Worth 50%.

Recommended Reading List:

Component 1:

The main reading for component 1 is J. L. Mackie's Inventing Right and Wrong

Component 2:

The main reading for component 2 is Elizabeth Barnes' The Minority Body.

An extended reading list will be circulated once the module has begun.