

TCD School of Physics Policy on flexible working: 30 September 2014

The School of Physics supports the principle of flexible working for staff employed in the School. The School undertakes to look favourably on requests to work flexibly and to work part-time.