

Environmental Hermeneutics: Science Engaged Theology

A Summer School hosted by the School of Religion, Theology, and Peace Studies, in collaboration with the Church of Ireland Theological Institute, at Trinity College
Dublin. June 3rd-6th 2025

This project was made possible through the support of Equipping Christian Leadership in an Age of Science (Grant 62750 from the John Templeton Foundation). <https://www.eclasproject.org>

June 3rd Based at the School of Religion, Theology, and Peace Studies

9 Room G16 Registration & Coffee
9.30 Room G16 Environmental Hermeneutics: Prof C. Russell, TCD
10.30 Cosmology with Rev Dr Martin Poulson, Roehampton, London
12.30 Early lunch, Room G16
1.00 Leave on Bus to Dunsink Observatory for 2pm Tour
3.30 Return by Bus to TCD for closing Afternoon Session
6.30 Dinner in town, Lincoln Inn

June 4th

9.30 Room G16 Anthropology with Dr Tim Middleton, Oxford
11.30 Chester Beatty Library: conserving cultural heritage with the Curator of the Western Collections, Dr Jill Unkel

1pm Lunch at TCD
2pm Visit to Department of Genetics with Prof Dan Bradley MRIA
3.45 Free afternoon
7pm Emmett Theatre, Arts Block
 Evening Public Lecture with Dr John Feehan, MRIA
 Chair: Eamon Ryan

June 5th

10am Biodiversity: morning with Dr John Feehan
12.30 Lunch at TCD
2.30 Depart for Dublin Bay Boat Trip to Howth from Quays (3-5pm)
 With Dr Thomas Cummins UCD
6pm Supper in Howth (Return by Dart to City).

June 6th

9.30 Smart or Sustainable Cities: Habitability & Place
 Prof C. Russell and Prof A. Pierce, TCD

11.00 Break & Refreshments
11.30 Workshop with Rev Dr Martin Poulson
1.00 Lunch at TCD
2pm Afternoon Public Lecture with Rev Dr Lucas Mix
 Chair: Prof Linda Hogan
 Refreshments G16