Jess Hayden BA, MSc

Jess is an organisational psychologist who works with clients who are trying to break boundaries. Jess helps prepare leaders and teams to withstand challenging situations at work and find their optimum performance environment using tools and evidence from emotional intelligence, decision-making, and innovation research.

Lucy McKenna BA, MA

Lucy is a learning designer, facilitator and coach, with a focus on innovation and change. Lucy has extensive experience designing impactful programmes that take individuals and teams on a journey from reflection to action. Drawing on research and tools from coaching and design she facilitates leaders to push outside their comfort zone and tackle challenges in innovative and creative ways.

Steve Rawling, International Storytelling Consultant

With over 20 years' experience as a TV journalist, Steve knows how to make his message work television and now helps clients like Google, Roche, the BBC, and IDEO to tell better stories about their work. Steve has worked with media companies, designers, innovators, charities, start-ups and CEOs across Europe. Steve helps people find the great stories that are sometimes buried beneath the business-speak.

He helps them tell simple stories to connect with customers, staff and investors. He has told over 20,000 stories in his career and he can help you to tell yours.
