FROM THE PROVOST

TRINITY 425

To celebrate the 425th anniversary of the founding of Trinity College Dublin, a series of photographs taken by staff, students and alumni and an essay by the Provost has been published. Available to buy in the Library Shop, Trinity is shown in all moods...read more

BEE HOTELS BUZZING

Six bee hotels have been installed on campus to help Trinity's grounds more pollinator-friendly and to raise awareness of pollinators. Sadly one third of Ireland's 97 wild bee species are threatened with extinction. These pollinators are facing risks including herbicides...read more

THE TRINITY MAINTENANCE TEAM

Over 5,000 planned and over 30,000 unplanned reactive maintenance tasks per year are looked after by a dedicated team in Facilities. The team keeps the estate - infrastructure, buildings and their systems - running and fix it when it breaks...read more

HELPING TO DIRECT SPACE MISSIONS

Prof Peter Gallagher will play a key role in landmark space missions over the next decade after being appointed as an advisor to the Director of Science at the European Space Agency. He will work with the Space Science Advisory Committee...read more

SPORTS AWARDS

Trinity's Hurlers won three awards after an excellent season, the Ladies Hockey Club won two awards, and DJ Fencing Club won all of the awards in the Trinity Sport Awards and Commune. Hunt master Cian O'Sullivan is Sports Person of the Year...read more

ENHANCING THE VISITOR EXPERIENCE

Over two million visitors come to Trinity each year. This summer they will enjoy an enhanced visitor experience with new developments such as the refurbished entrance at Nassau Street, a refurbished Book of Kells exhibition and a new visitor centre in Regent House...read more
