Explore the World!

Engage new cultures, learn in other great universities across the globe, broaden the mind, and gain new experiences through travel and intercultural encounters.

Students in the School of Religion have the option, in their third year, to participate in Erasmus and International exchanges.

Non-EU Exchanges: All students in the Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences Faculty can avail of exchanges with over 30 universities in the world’s most exciting cities such as New York, Shanghai, Melbourne, Sydney, Toronto, and Jerusalem.

Students in the School of Religion have recently studied at the National University of Singapore, UNC Chapel Hill (USA), and Hebrew University (Israel).

European Erasmus Exchanges. Among growing options are a year or semester abroad at: KU Leuven (Belgium), University of Glasgow (Scotland), University of Birmingham (England).

We offer funding, on a competitive basis, for international exchanges. Students in our school have recently been awarded funds to participate in exchanges with: Tufts University (USA), Bar Ilan University (Israel).
