2021–2022

(Revised for Academic Year 10-9-2021)
SCHOOL OF RELIGION

TRINITY COLLEGE, DUBLIN

Introduction

Welcome to the School of Religion where we continue a tradition of scholarship that goes back to the very foundation of Trinity College Dublin. Its current form goes back to the foundation of a non-denominational degree in biblical and theological studies in Trinity's Arts Faculty forty years ago, the first at an Irish university.

The School of Religion is one of the twelve Schools that comprise Trinity College's Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences. It brings together biblical studies, theology, ethics, theory of religion and World Religions, and international conflict and peace studies as independent but related disciplinary fields.

The School’s undergraduate and postgraduate courses explore encounters between religions and cultures from their roots in antiquity to the present day. They investigate the intellectual and institutional resources developed in historical and current interactions and conflicts and apply them to the challenges and the opportunities societies face in an age of globalisation.

The School has a strong commitment to community engagement and is home to two exceptional academic entities: the Loyola Institute and the Irish School of Ecumenics and has a campus in Belfast as well as in Dublin.
The School of Religion is a champion for the Trinity Inclusive Curriculum project which we integrate into our work in the School. Please note the following:

Statement of Inclusivity

Trinity College, the University of Dublin aims to provide an inclusive environment which promotes equality, and values diversity. The College is committed to maintaining an environment of dignity and respect where all staff and students can develop to their full potential. The concept of equality is central to the College’s ethos of academic and service excellence. The School of Religion strives to be an inclusive learning community, respecting those of differing backgrounds and beliefs. As a community, we aim to be respectful to all in this class, regardless of race, ethnicity, religion, gender, age, or sexual orientation.

Pronouns, Gender Identity and Gender Expression

Our School affirms people of all gender expressions and gender identities. If you prefer to be called a different name than what is on a class roster, please let teaching staff know. Feel free to correct us on your gender pronoun, if you feel comfortable doing so. College is formally committed to recognise and support an individual’s gender identity and gender expression so that all members of the College community may experience a positive and inclusive environment, where every member is treated with dignity and respect. You can find that formal commitment in Trinity’s Gender Identity and Gender Expression Policy 2019.

HANDBOOK

This Handbook supplements and synopsizes the regulations that are contained in Part II of the Calendar and in any disparity between Calendar and Handbook, the Calendar’s provisions apply. On Orientation Day, academic and administrative staff will be available to explain most of these requirements, and to answer any queries that you may have about procedures and regulations.

An electronic copy of this Handbook will be available on the School of Religion / Programme website with copies available via the Virtual Learning Environment (VLE). A hard copy of this handbook in large print is available in the School office. Alternative formats of the Handbook can be made on request.

There may be some modification during the year to the procedures and regulations outlined below: these will be brought to your attention as they arise.

Please note:

Familiarize yourself with College’s regulations for undergraduate students. This is available in Part II of the Calendar.

TEACHING AND LEARNING

1. Coursework Requirements

B.A. Moderatorship in World Religions and Theology

The Honors B.A. degree is known as a Moderatorship. There are two possible courses leading to the degree:

I. Single Honours (SH) Moderatorship in World Religions and Theology.

II. Two-Subject Moderatorship (Trinity Joint Honours) in World Religions and Theology combined with another Arts Subject.

The first year of each programme offers courses on foundational methods and approaches to study of religions and biblical studies, theological studies, and ethics; these disciplines set the context for the more specialised study of the second and third years.

The fourth year offers a series of seminar style, two-hour slots modules and a dissertation. https://www.tcd.ie/TSM/current/tsmtrinityelectives.php

The fourth year of the degree programme are known by the following title:

Year 4 Senior Sophister (SS)

Both the Single Honours and TSM degree in Religions and Theology are recognised by the Department of Education and Science as leading to qualifications for the purpose of admission to the Register for Intermediate (Secondary) School Teachers.

REU44023THEOLOGICAL ETHICS AND ECOLOGY
REU44113SECTS AND SAGES: THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS AND THE NEW TESTAMENT

2. Coursework Assessment

2.1 General Information

School of Religion courses rely on a continuous assessment and Examination’s system, based on a mixture of written assignments and lecture/seminar attendance and examinations which take place at the end of each semester (Michaelmas and Hilary term).

2.2 The Role of External Examiners

Your examinations, essays and dissertation are assessed, first in the School of Religion and then by the university’s External Examiners (Junior Sophister and Senior Sophister only). Assessments pass or fail on the final judgement of the External Examiners. External Examiners meet in late May following the end of the academic year to monitor assessment procedures and outcomes in all modules and for the dissertation. Final marks are confirmed at this Court of Examiners. The internal examiner of your assessment (typically the module coordinator, or lecturer for the topic) will provide you with a report on your work together with the grade that will be proposed to the Court of Examiners. If your mark is on the threshold between Pass and Fail, or between Distinction and less than 70, then a second internal examiner will mark your assessment. All correspondence with External Examiners are compliant with GDPR.
3. Examination Conventions

In order to rise with their year, students must pass the annual examination. The following conventions apply in the determination of results. Students wishing to discuss their examination results should consult in the first instance their Head of Year.

Passing the year:
Students may Pass the year outright if they achieve ALL of the following:
1. An overall credit-weighted average Pass mark for the year of 40% or higher, based on the full 60 credits (all modules combined); and
2. A Pass mark in all modules (minimum 40% in all modules),

OR
Students may Pass the year By Compensation if they achieve ALL of the following (All modules are compensatable):
1. An overall credit-weighted average Pass mark for the year of 40% or higher, based on the full 60 credits (all modules combined);
2. Pass a minimum of 50 credits (minimum 40% in each module); AND
3. Have fail marks between 35% and 39% in modules not exceeding 10 credits in total (i.e. one or two 5 ects modules or one 10 ects module).

Failing and Reassessment:
Students who have an overall Fail result following the Semester 2 / End of Year session will be reassessed in all failed modules, at the Reassessment session. Details of what components/modules need to be reassessed in will be on the portal with your results. If you have any queries on your requirements, please contact your Department(s) in the first instance.
3.1 Senior Sophister

Your attention is drawn to the following regulations in the College Calendar:

Passing the year:

Students may Pass the year outright if they achieve ALL of the following:
1. An overall credit-weighted average Pass mark for the year of 40% or higher, based on the full 60 credits (all modules combined); and
2. A Pass mark in all modules (minimum 40% in all modules),

OR

Students may Pass the year By Compensation if they achieve ALL of the following (All modules are compensatable):
1. An overall credit-weighted average Pass mark for the year of 40% of higher, based on the full 60 credits (all modules combined);
2. Pass a minimum of 50 credits (minimum 40% in each module); AND
3. Have fail marks between 35% and 39% in modules not exceeding 10 credits in total (i.e. one or two 5 ects modules or one 10 ects module).

TSM Degree Weightings:
The method of calculation is dependent on the student's TSM Pattern.

(i) Pattern A:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject 1 SS</th>
<th>Subject 2 SS</th>
<th>Overall Degree Result</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>50%</td>
<td>50%</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(a) To be eligible for a moderatorship award candidate must achieve an overall pass in the Senior Sophister year.
(b) The marks awarded in the two subjects in the Senior Sophister year contribute with equal weighting to the overall degree mark.

(ii) Pattern B:
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Minor Subject JS</th>
<th>Major Subject JS</th>
<th>Major Subject SS</th>
<th>Major Subject JS + SS</th>
<th>Overall Degree Result</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>25%</td>
<td>25%</td>
<td>50%</td>
<td>75%</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(a) To be eligible for a moderatorship award candidate must achieve an overall pass in the Junior Sophister year and an overall pass in the Senior Sophister year.

(b) The total moderatorship mark is the combined result of both the Junior Sophister and Senior Sophister years. The overall degree mark is calculated on the basis of equal weightings of both subjects in the Junior Sophister year and equal weighting of both Sophister years.

Failing and Reassessment:
Students who have an overall Fail result following the Semester 2 / End of Year session will be reassessed in all failed modules, at the Reassessment session. Details of what components/modules need to be reassessed in will be on the portal with your results. If you have any queries on your requirement please contact your Department(s) in the first instance.

4. Absence Policy/Regulations for Attendance

Attendance is required at all lectures, seminars and tutorials unless you are specifically exempted (off books). If you are unable to attend a lecture for any reason, you must let your lecturer know, either in person or by sending a note or email to the lecturer.

Unexplained and/or unwarranted non-attendance at more than six lectures per module in any term will result in your performance being deemed non-satisfactory for that term. Being returned as non-satisfactory for two terms puts you at risk of being barred from exams in accordance with normal university regulations.

Undergraduate students who consider that illness may prevent them from attending an examination (or any part thereof) should consult their medical advisor and request a medical certificate for an appropriate period. If a certificate is granted Medical certificates should be given to the Executive Officer of Undergraduate studies, who will contact the Head of Year, within three days of the beginning of the period of absence from the examination. Such medical certificates must state that the student is unfit to sit examinations. Medical certificates will not be accepted in explanation for poor performance; where an examination has been completed, subsequent withdrawal is not permitted. Further details of procedures subsequent to the submission of medical certificates are available in from student tutors.

Course participants who fail to meet deadlines and who have not been granted an extension, will be notified that no further work will be accepted from them and that their assessment will be based on work already submitted.

Summaries for missed classes: Students who have missed six or more lectures are required to hand in a one-page summary of the main points of each class they have missed from the articles and the PowerPoints available either on Blackboard, or as handed out in class and in the reader, as evidence that they have caught up with what they have missed. Students have to attend every class from then on until the end of term. For those with a doctor's note, the deadline is extended, but the work has to be handed in at a date before the end of the teaching term to make them able to take the exams. The normal essay assignment has to be completed by the class deadline.

5.2 Description of ECTS

The European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS) is an academic credit system based on the estimated student workload required to achieve the objectives of a module or programme of study. It is designed to enable academic recognition for periods of study, to facilitate student mobility and credit accumulation and transfer. The ECTS is the recommended credit system for higher education in Ireland and across the European Higher Education Area.

The ECTS weighting for a module is a measure of the student input or workload required for that module, based on factors such as the number of contact hours, the number and length of written or verbally presented assessment exercises, class preparation and private study time, laboratory classes, examinations, clinical attendance, professional training placements, and so on as appropriate. There is no intrinsic relationship between the credit volume of a module and its level of difficulty. The European norm for full-time study over one academic year is 60 credits. 1 credit represents 20-25 hours estimated student input, so a 10-credit module will be designed to require 200-250 hours of student input including class contact time, assessments and examinations.

ECTS credits are awarded to a student only upon successful completion of the programme year. Progression from one year to the next is determined by the programme regulations. Students who fail a year of their programme will not obtain credit for that year even if they have passed certain component. Exceptions to this rule are one-year and part-year visiting students, who are awarded credit for individual modules successfully completed.

5.3 QQI-NFQ Level

Under the QQI-NFQ, the Irish National Framework of Qualifications, the undergraduate degree is Level 8 qualifications. For the full list of Modules with ECTS weighting, Learning Outcomes and a clear statement on graduate attributes that are achieved within the programme/learning outcomes within the ‘Full module descriptors’ below.

If you are not enrolled in your modules check with your School Office to ensure you are timetabled for the modules. All data in Blackboard is based on the College timetabling systems and information taken from your student record on my.tcd.ie. Blackboard requires an active TCD computer account for access. For more information on access and enrolment issues visit the IT Services VLE page.

5.4 Timetable

Your timetable will be available in your student portal at https://my.tcd.ie/. It is also available on the relevant undergraduate course page on the website: https://www.tcd.ie/religion/

6. Presenting and Submitting Your Work

6.1 Essays

Number of Essays required

Modules are assessed by essay/assignments and/or exam.

Senior Fresh & Junior Sophister Year: students are required to write an essay (or its equivalent) of 2,000 words for each half-year or semester examined course taken.

Senior Sophister Year: All SS students are required to write a dissertation of 15,000 words.

How essays contribute to your annual marks

Junior Sophister Years: essays normally make up 30% of annual assessment marks. In the language courses, 50% of the final mark is based on marks for assignments completed during the year.

Senior Sophister Year: all students take four courses and write a 15,000 word dissertation (incl. footnotes, excl. bibliography).
Writing essays
Learning to write clear, succinct and well-structured essays is an important part of your education. You should also learn to adhere to the prescribed word-limit. A lecturer may penalise your work if it is too short and may refuse to read material greatly beyond the word limit. Essays will be assessed on the basis of content, logical structure, spelling, grammar and presentation.

Please use the cover sheet found on the School website and on Blackboard which includes space for the following information:

- your name
- your student number
- your year
- the lecturer's name
- the course code and name
- the title of the essay
- your signature not to have plagiarized.

Layout: the spacing of essays should be 1.5 or double-spaced and printed.

The lecturer who assigns the essay (or equivalent) will tell you the day when it is due.

6.2 Returning Essays / Essay Submission

Essays are to be submitted electronically and in hard copy, according to the lecturer's requirements, by the date and time stated on the essay assignment. The essay should include detailed references (either in-text, or endnotes, or footnotes) and a bibliography laid out in alphabetical order. Your pages should be A4 size, numbered, and your typing double-spaced. Correct spelling (consistently either English or American), grammar and clear presentation are essential.
All hard copy essays must be submitted to the School Undergraduate Office (Room G8) by noon on the specified date. Every essay must include the appropriate cover-sheet attached and delivered into the School Undergraduate Office. The cover-sheet includes a Declaration concerning plagiarism, so all cover-sheets must be signed. Copies of cover-sheets can be downloaded on the Departmental webpage.

An electronic copy must also be submitted by the deadline through TurnItIn via the College VLE (Blackboard) using your Trinity IT account username and password. If you are unclear as to how to do this please talk to your lecturer.

If you hand your essay in after the due date without an extension, it will still be accepted up to one week late with a loss of 10% of whatever mark is awarded. It will not be accepted after the lapse of one week. If you require an extension, contact your Course Coordinator in the first instance. Remember that if you do not hand in your essays you also risk being returned as non-satisfactory for courses. If this happens over two terms, the department may ask for you to be barred from taking the examinations. Remember also that since the essays count towards your final mark your grades will suffer if you fail to submit them.

6.3 Essay Extensions

Essay extensions are granted by your Course Coordinator and only in cases of medical or personal emergencies. If you would like to seek an extension you should visit/contact your Course Coordinator during their posted office hours, BEFORE the respective deadline. The School of Religion essay submission cover sheet should be used in submitting essays. The essay should include detailed references (either in-text, or endnotes, or footnotes) and a bibliography laid out in alphabetical order. Your pages should be A4 size, numbered, and your typing double-spaced. Correct spelling (consistently either English or American), grammar and clear presentation are essential. All submissions must have the mandatory cover sheet available to download. (word.doc)
6.4 Senior Sophister Dissertations

SS Students take four modules/seminars – two in each half-year or semester chosen from the modules on offer in that year. In addition they also write a dissertation of 15,000 words in length (incl. footnotes, excl. bibliography).

Preparing to write your dissertation.

The subject of the dissertation should be discussed with the potential supervisor before or in Semester B of the Junior Sophister year. Once a topic is agreed upon, a dissertation proposal should be drawn up comprising

- a title,
- a provisional chapter structure
- an indicative bibliography of 3-5 titles. The dissertation proposal should be submitted to the Head of JS year by the end of the first week of April 2022. In consultation with the supervisor (in the School of Religion) the proposal will be agreed and a list of students and their supervisors will be put on the Departmental noticeboard by the end of April.

Supervision: writing and researching your dissertation

Students meet with their supervisor for approximately five tutorial sessions during the course of work on their dissertation. The role of the supervisor is to give general guidance and direction to structuring and organising research and students should not anticipate that supervisors act as a type editor. For feedback on dissertations plan to have drafts of chapters to your supervisor well in advance of the final submission deadline.

Length of your dissertation

The dissertation should not exceed 15,000 words in length (incl. footnotes, excl. bibliography). A key part of writing a dissertation is learning to present an argument precisely and succinctly. On the other hand, if you produce a dissertation that is significantly below 15,000 words, you may be penalised on the ground that you have invested insufficient time and effort into it.
Submitting your dissertation

Due date. Dissertations are to be submitted to the Undergraduate Executive Officer by Wednesday, 23rd March 2022, no later than 4:00 p.m.

Cover page. The cover page of the dissertation should include the following:

Main Title
Subtitle
Student's name
Senior Sophister Dissertation presented to
The Department of Religions and Theology
Trinity College Dublin
Supervisor: Supervisor's name
Date

On the first page you should make and sign the following declaration:

“I [Name] hereby declare that this dissertation is entirely my own work.”

Binding. Two soft-bound copies of the dissertation are to be submitted, one to be sent to the external examiner, the other for the supervisor and internal examiner.

The structure of the dissertation should be (in this order):

1. Title page, including title and author (this is the name under which you are officially registered in College)
2. Declaration. Use the following wording:

   DECLARATION
I certify that this dissertation, submitted in partial fulfilment of the requirement for the Undergraduate degree and has not been submitted for a degree at any other University, and that it is entirely my own work. I agree that the Library may lend or copy the dissertation upon request.

Signed: ..............................................

Date: .......................

3. Acknowledgements (if any)
4. Abstracts. You must provide one-page Abstract one bound in, at the start of your dissertation. The Abstract of the dissertation (in single spacing), outlines its content and mode of investigation. It should be headed by title and author and entitled “Abstract”.
5. Table of Contents
6. Introduction
7. Chapters
8. References (if you are not using the Harvard system whereby references are in brackets in the text)
9. Bibliography

You must also include:

(i) a list of abbreviations used in the dissertation (if such abbreviations are extensive), which are placed either before the Introduction or immediately before the Bibliography. These should be noted in the Contents.

You may also include:

(ii) appendices, containing any important extra material you need to include. Any appendices are placed after the conclusion but before the bibliography.
You must follow the exact form and colour of the light binding required for the dissertation. The name of the degree must appear on the front cover. The name of the degree is followed by the year of submission and the student’s name. The front cover should show the title of the dissertation above the centre.

Your name must appear on the front cover of the dissertation exactly as registered. If in doubt, please check with the Undergraduate Officer. First name initials are not allowed.

6.5 Referencing

Clear and accurate referencing is an important part of the scholarly task. Your reader should be able to see when you are quoting directly from a source, when you are synopsizing a source, and when you are advancing your own judgement on the sources to which have referred. The reference that you provide should enable your reader to check the sources that you have used. And, as section 8 on Plagiarism, below, makes clear, the careful making of clear and accurate references is an essential element in establishing the integrity of your work as a scholar.

Quotations (and references generally) must be made with care for accuracy. Quote the exact words; if you have to add extra words to clarify the sense, put them in square brackets; if you omit any, indicate that you have done so with three dots; so, for example:
It is instructive to note the comment of Henry Kissinger: “[In such cases] ... it is essential to bear in mind the role of personal humility in the exercise of diplomacy.”

If a quotation is going to take up more than two lines in your script, or if you wish to give it a special emphasis, make a distinct paragraph of it: indent the whole paragraph five places in from the left-hand margin, with single spacing and without quotation marks.
Always when you quote or refer, give a precise reference to the work and page or pages to which you have referred.

It is a standard and essential academic requirement to cite the source of ideas taken from other authors and to place direct quotes in quotation marks. Where the idea or quotation is second-hand, i.e., drawn from a citation in another source, that fact should be noted in your list of references, e.g. Sen, 1999, p. 75, as cited in Todaro, 2009, p. 16.
Web-based resources should be referenced with the following information: author of the document, title of the document, website address, publication date of text or image, and the date at which you accessed the site.

The work of compiling an accurate bibliography and footnotes is immeasurably lightened if proper care is taken from the beginning of your research to keep such details. When you note down a quotation or other reference, take care to register with it the full and precise details of publication.

Reference Styles

College does not require you to employ a particular reference style – you may, therefore use styles that rely on endnotes or footnotes (e.g., Chicago), or that provide references in brackets in the body of your text (e.g., Harvard), as long as you are consistent in their use – never ever mix the referencing styles.

Endnotes or footnotes serve two chief purposes: (i) to give a reference or several references; or (ii) to discuss a point which is incidental to your main argument, but which you wish nevertheless to acknowledge, or which serves to supplement or clarify your text. Most of your footnotes or endnotes will be of the first type.

Footnote and Endnote references should be in single spacing and may be placed at the bottom of the relevant page (Footnotes) or in numerical order before the bibliography at the end of the dissertation or essay (Endnotes).

In a bibliography for your essays and dissertation, books, journal articles, online resources or book chapters should be listed alphabetically by author surname in the bibliography. The bibliography should include all works that you quote or mention in your references. Full publication details of the books and articles should be given, and you should follow a consistent pattern for doing this. The titles of books and journals should be italicised (or underlined), but not the titles of articles in journals. These should be put in inverted commas or quotation marks.

Referring to the Bible

We recommend that you use either the RSV or the NRSV version of the Bible. Students taking the language courses will find the RSV more useful since it is a more literal translation than the NRSV.

When referring to the Bible, you do not need to use footnotes or endnotes. Biblical references normally go in brackets in the body of your text. You should use the abbreviations of Biblical books as found in the RSV and NRSV translations. The punctuation of Biblical references should be as follows. The Book of Genesis, chapter 1, verse 1 should be written as ‘Gen. 1:1’. If you wish to refer to a passage of several verses, then write, for example, ‘Gen. 1:1-5’.

Foot/Endnotes

With the exception of Biblical references, all other acknowledgements should take the form of either footnotes or endnotes. For detailed instructions and examples on how to quote, please refer to the Chicago Manual of Style Citation Quick Guide: http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html

Notes of either kind should take the following form:

For books

Surname, first name, Title of book (Place of publication: publisher, year), particular page number(s) referred to.

Examples:

For articles in books
Surname, first name, "Title of article", in Name of Book Editor, ed., Title of Book (Place of publication: publisher, year), first and last page number, particular page number(s) referred to.

Example:

For articles in journals
Surname, First name,"Title of article", Title of Journal, volume number, issue number (year of publication) particular page number(s) referred to.

Example:

You only need to give full information in the very first reference to a document. Thereafter you may abbreviate thus:

3 Stausberg, Contemporary Theories, p. 72.
4 Wiese, "Counterhistory", p. 83.

Bibliography
At the end of your essay you will be expected to list the books that you have consulted in a ‘bibliography’. This list should be in alphabetical order of surname.

Noting or listing an internet resource
In a foot/endnote
Surname, first Name of Author or Webmaster/Webmistress (if known), "Title of text", heading of page, full URL (date last accessed).

In a bibliography
Surname, First Name of Author or Webmaster/Webmistress (if known). "Title of text", heading of page, full URL (date last accessed).

Example:

NB: Unless using an internet source specifically allowed by the module lecturer, use of internet sites is not permissible as bibliographical material.

6.6 skills 4 study (Help with writing your essay).
TCD’s Local Homepage, under “For Students” in the right-hand margin, you will find a link to “skills4study”. This service provides instruction for students who require guidance and further education when writing academic essays. Taking the essay writing classes offered by College is an excellent investment for all students.
7. Research Ethics in the School of Religion

Trinity College Dublin and the School of Religion's research community takes great care to ensure that our research activities follow best ethical practice in their design, content and conduct. Staff and students are required to follow College policies, maintain appropriate ethical standards in their research, and adhere to current data protection policies such as the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). To review the College’s full “Policy on Good Research Practice”, follow this link.

If you are pursuing a research project or dissertation that involves human subjects, your proposal may require approval from the School of Religion’s Research Ethics Committee. For more on that process, visit the School’s Research Ethics Website here.

8. Plagiarism

Whenever you draw on another person's work, you are required to acknowledge your source. Failure to do so exposes you to the accusation of passing off someone else’s work as your own. This is called ‘plagiarism’. The University Calendar states that this is "a major offence, and subject to the disciplinary procedures of the University". As your essays count towards your final mark, plagiarism in your essays is considered the equivalent of cheating in an examination, a major offence for which you may be expelled.

Plagiarism results from either deliberately using the work of another without proper acknowledgement, or from lack of care in acknowledgements. All quotations and paraphrases of other people's work must be properly referenced to avoid the charge of plagiarism. This includes the work of other students and internet sites. If you use another student's essay notes without acknowledgement, both you and the author of the notes might be charged with plagiarism. To properly reference material taken from an internet site, you should give the full URL of the page.

Your attention is drawn to the following communication by the Senior Lecturer and the Dean of Graduate Studies:
In order to support students in understanding what plagiarism is and how they can avoid it, we have created an online central repository to consolidate all information and resources on plagiarism. Up to now, information has been spread across many sites, which can lead to confusion. Through the provision of a central repository, it is hoped to communicate this information to students in a clearer and more coherent manner. The central repository is being hosted by the Library. It includes the following:

(i) The 2018-19 Calendar entry on plagiarism for undergraduate and postgraduate students;
(ii) The matrix explaining the different levels of plagiarism outlined in the Calendar entry and the sanctions applied;
(iii) Information on what plagiarism is and how to avoid it;
(iv) ‘Ready, Steady, Write’, an online tutorial on plagiarism which must be completed by all students;
(v) The text of a declaration which must be inserted into all cover sheets accompanying all assessed course work;
(vi) Details of software packages that can detect plagiarism, e.g. Turnitin.

It is important to emphasise that all students, i.e., undergraduate and postgraduate new entrants and existing students, will be required to complete the online tutorial ‘Ready, Steady, Write’. Linked to this requirement, we are asking colleagues in all departments to ensure that the cover sheets which students must complete when submitting assessed work, contain the following declaration:

I have read and I understand the plagiarism provisions in the General Regulations of the University Calendar, Part II for the current year.

Course handbooks are currently required to include a section on plagiarism, which has a link to the relevant sections in the University Calendar. For 2018-19, we ask you to ensure that your Course Handbooks include the following information:

(ii) The 2018-19 Calendar entry on plagiarism
(iii) Guidelines on the appropriate methodology for the kind of work that students will be expected to undertake. Providing discipline specific examples of good academic practice for referencing is very helpful for students. We would like to draw your attention to the 2018-19 Calendar entry on plagiarism which states that “[a]ll Schools and departments must include in their handbooks or other literature given to students, guidelines on the appropriate methodology for the kind of work that students will be expected to undertake”;

(iv) A statement informing all students that they must complete the online tutorial on avoiding plagiarism ‘Ready, Steady, Write’, located at http://tcd-ie.libguides.com/plagiarism/ready-steady-write

(v) The template of the coversheet/s which students must complete and attach to work submitted in hard or soft copy or via Blackboard. NB. The coversheet must include the declaration noted above.

We ask you to take the following steps:

(i) Visit the online resources to inform yourself about how Trinity deals with plagiarism and how you can avoid it at https://www.tcd.ie/library/support/plagiarism/story_html5.html. You should also familiarize yourself with the 2018-19 Calendar entry on plagiarism located on this website and the sanctions which are applied;

(ii) Complete the ‘Ready, Steady, Write’ online tutorial on plagiarism at https://tcd-ie.libguides.com/plagiarism/ready-steady-write. Completing the tutorial is compulsory for all students.
(iii) Familiarise yourself with the declaration that you will be asked to sign when submitting course work at https://tcd-ie.libguides.com/plagiarism/declaration;

(iv) Contact your Course-Co-ordinator or your Lecturer if you are unsure about any aspect of plagiarism.

9. Undergraduate Appeals Process

The Appeals Process is outlined in the Trinity College Calendar, Part II. All appeals should be heard first at School level. The grounds for appeal against the decision of Taught Course Committees are outlined in the Calendar under “General Regulations”. For further details of appeals at College level, please consult the Calendar Part II.

For a general list of all Student Support Services, visit the website: https://www.tcd.ie/students/supports-services/ or download the leaflet here: Student Support Services booklet.
Student-facing module:

We thought we should bring the following student-facing module Learning to Learn Online in Trinity to your attention. The pedagogically-led module has been developed to prepare and support students in Trinity (both undergraduate and postgraduate) with the transition to hybrid learning at Trinity this academic year.

Registered students can self-enrol on Blackboard for the module.

The module is structured thematically across four blocks and three of these are now available.

Block 1. Getting Started for Learning Online
Block 2. Working Together Online
Block 3. Creating your Study Routine
Block 4. Preparing for Assessments

3.1 UNDERGRADUATE ADVISORY SERVICE

The Undergraduate Advisory Service is a unique and confidential service available to all registered students in Trinity College. It offers a comprehensive range of academic, pastoral and professional supports dedicated to enhancing your student experience.

3.2 Tutors

Trinity College is the only university in Ireland to operate what is known as the tutorial system. All registered undergraduate students are allocated a Tutor when starting in College. Your Tutor is a member of the academic staff who is appointed to look after the general welfare and developments of all students in his/her care. You can contact your tutor about anything and they will either offer advice or will be in a position to refer you to a more appropriate colleague in college. Details of your tutor can be found on your TCD Portal.
should ensure that you meet with your Tutor at the beginning of the year to introduce yourself.

3.3 Mature Student Supports
The Mature Student Office in Trinity College is part of the Trinity Access Programmes (TAP). They are located in Goldsmith Hall, right beside Pearse Street Dart Station. The Mature Student Office provides advice and support to both prospective and current undergraduate mature students. They are always interested in meeting prospective students and are happy to provide information to mature student groups in Colleges of Further Education or other organisations.

3.4 S2S (Student 2 Student)
From the moment you arrive in College right the way through to your end of year exams Student 2 Student (S2S) is here to make sure your first year is fun, engaging and a great foundation for the rest of your time in Trinity. You’ll meet your two S2S mentors in Freshers’ Week and they’ll make sure you know other people in your course before your classes even start. They’ll keep in regular touch with you throughout your first year and invite you to events on and off campus. They’ll also give you useful information about your course and what to look out for. Mentors are students who have been through first year and know exactly what it feels like, so you never have to worry about asking them a question or talking to them about anything that’s worrying you.

S2S also offers trained Peer Supporters if you want to talk confidentially to another student or just to meet a friendly face for a coffee and a chat.
S2S is supported by the Senior Tutor’s Office and the Student Counselling Service.
http://student2student.tcd.ie, E-mail: student2student@tcd.ie, Phone: + 353 1 896 2438
3.5 Course Coordinator
The Course Coordinator for 2021-22 is Professor Alexandra Grieser. She is available for consultation should you have any difficulties with your studies, and will link up with your tutor, if necessary.
Professor Grieser is also the Dissertation Seminars coordinator.

3.6 Staff – Student meetings
The lecturers are all approachable people who welcome the opportunity to meet their students. The times at which lecturers are available to students in their offices are posted on the notice board and on each lecturer’s door. If these times clash with your other class times, simply make an appointment with the lecturer for another time.

3.7 Student Union (TCDSU)
The Students’ Union is run for students by students. They represent you at college level. As a student of Trinity College, you are automatically a member of TCDSU. Remember—they work for you, so if you think they should be focusing on a particular issue, get in touch!
The Students’ Union is a vital resource for Trinity students. It’s the place to go if you have a problem in College - it has information on accommodation, jobs, campaigns, as well as information pertaining to education and welfare. The website also contains contact details for each Sabbatical Officer.

3.8 Student Representatives
Student representatives are available for each year of the undergraduate course for Single Honour and TSM students. Course Coordinators offer the opportunity for students to talk about the curriculum, the degree, and matters of particular concern to the student body. If you have an issue that you would like to raise, tell the appropriate student representative about it. On the School of Religion Executive Committee, the student convener for 2021/2022 has yet to be elected.
4. Resources

4.1 Books and the Library

Experience shows that students who adopt a good routine of personal reading and study throughout the year are the ones who succeed. Reliance on class notes alone is not adequate for the standard expected in an honors degree programme. You are expected to buy a certain number of books. You will need a Bible; the department recommends that you use the RSV or NRSV version. Before deciding what books to buy, ask your course lecturers for advice. For most of your reading, however, you will be using the College Library. Apart from lectures, the library is arguably the most important resource within College for Arts students.

4.2 Computer Facilities

It is in your interest to learn to type as soon as possible and to familiarise yourself with the computer facilities available to you in College. Computers available to undergraduate students can be found at the following locations:

- Arts Building, lower ground floor, Beckett Rooms 1 and 2
- Áras an Phiarsaigh, beside the Players Theatre
- 201 Pearse Street (PCs only), to the right of Áras an Phiarsaigh
- "The Arches", under the railway line in the northeast corner of College
- The Hamilton Building, at the Westland Row end of College

When you register, you will be given a login ID and a password, both of which you will need to access the College computers. You will also be given, free of charge, an e-mail account. Brief starter courses in computer use will be offered during the week of registration.
Every student will also be provided with personal file storage. This means that you can save material on the College network. You can then access this material on any computer in any of the above locations. It is, of course, indicative that you save all your work onto floppy discs as well. Anything you save on your personal file storage can be opened only with your password.

Any problems you have with computers should be brought to the attention of the College’s Information Systems Services (IS Services). Their help desk is in Áras an Phiarasigh and they can be reached by phone at Ext. 2164 (or at 608 2164 if you are phoning from outside College). An IS Services Handbook is available from the Help Desk.

4.3 Data Protection

Trinity College Dublin uses personal data relating to students for a variety of purposes. We are careful to comply with relevant obligations under data protection laws and have prepared this short guide to ensure you understand how we obtain, use and disclose student data in the course of performing University functions and services.

The guidance note supplements the University's Data Protection Policy.
4.4 Public Lectures

The School has a lively tradition of public lectures, which are frequently delivered by distinguished international scholars. Attendance at these lectures is free of charge to all students of Trinity College, who are strongly encouraged to take advantage of them.

4.5 The Weingreen Museum

The Weingreen Museum of Biblical Antiquities is named in honor of its founder Professor Jacob Weingreen. It received its present title in 1977 in recognition of Professor Weingreen’s contribution to the creation of the museum. Professor Weingreen was Erasmus Smith’s Professor of Hebrew at Trinity College Dublin between 1939 and 1979. He excavated in the Near East and maintained contact with archaeologists who donated pieces to the Museum. Professor Weingreen was the author of the Hebrew grammar textbook that is still recognized as the standard teaching work on the subject. The museum’s collection consists of pottery and other artefacts from the ancient Near East: items from ancient Israel, Egypt and Babylon, Greek and Roman coins, Roman lamps, for example. The museum exists to further scholarly research and teaching. Visiting scholars, school parties, and members of the public, are welcome to visit, by appointment, during teaching term. The Weingreen Museum is located on the 5th Level of the Arts Building, in Room 5036. Applications should be made in writing to the Curator of the Weingreen Museum, Dr Zuleika Rodgers.

5. Careers

Link to careers office https://www.tcd.ie/Careers

Students can make an appointment with a Careers Advisor through MyCareer. To avail of this service please login to MyCareer with your Trinity student name and password, update your profile and you can then book an appointment. The School of Religion Careers Advisor, is Ms Orlaith Tunney, e-mail: tunneyo@tcd.ie
6. Clubs, Societies and Sports

Of course, university is not all about study, and we hope that you will enjoy your time outside the classroom too and participate in university life as fully as possible. Trinity has a long and excellent tradition of student life and you can find a list of Clubs and Societies & Sports. Whether you are interested in yoga, debating, music or photography or you would just like to try something new, there are over 124 Trinity Societies for you to choose. You can join a society at any time during the year. For information on the wide array of sport, health, and fitness facilities available see Trinity Sports Centre. 7. Study Abroad/International Study

7.1 Visiting Students at Trinity

Visiting students attending modules for JF, SF, and JS years are assessed in the same way as undergraduate students in the School this year since there will be alternatives to sitting exams for all students due to the Covid conditions, consisting in different additional assignments in each module.
7.2 Trinity Students abroad: Erasmus and International Exchanges:

Under this scheme undergraduate, but in certain cases also postgraduate students have the opportunity to spend a year (or part of it) studying at one of two European universities outside Ireland—Glasgow and Leuven—with financial support from European funds. The Erasmus and international exchanges coordinator for out-going students is Prof. Ben Wold, woldb@tcd.ie.

The University of Glasgow, Scotland

We have links with the Faculty of Divinity and the Department of Theology and Religious Studies at the University of Glasgow, one of Scotland’s oldest medieval universities.

The Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium

We have established both a student exchange and a teaching exchange with the Faculty of Catholic Theology in Leuven. This represents a genuine opportunity for our students. It allows students to travel to the Continent and experience a different climate of studying theology without having to master a foreign language—the lectures are conducted in English. Moreover, the Faculty of Theology in Leuven has a long-established, worldwide reputation. Major theologians from Erasmus to Gutierrez have studied or worked there. The international English-language programmes of Theology attract students from all over the world. The Faculty employs almost 40 full-time members of staff, covering all major aspects of the theological and exegetical fields. The theology library is one of the finest in Europe, subscribing to more than 1,000 journals, with more than one million books on theology. Leuven itself is a beautiful medieval town in the heart of Europe. For further information, see: http://www.theo.kuleuven.ac.be/en/d.

Students can apply for the international exchanges that Trinity offers on a competitive basis to spend their JS year at a University in Canada, the US, Australia or Asia.
8. Graduation

Following the Court of Examiners, the University’s decision to award a degree must be processed and ratified at different committee levels, and you should not expect to be commenced within at least two months of a Court decision. All queries about your Commencement, following the Court of Examiners, must be addressed to the Academic Registry. Remember that TCD will contact you at the home address that you provided at registration. Any change of address must be notified to TCD on completion of the course. Please note: you may not graduate until all outstanding fees and charges (including library charges) have been paid.

9. Feedback

Much of this Handbook is taken up with rules and procedural requirements. This is unavoidable if we are to ensure that the School of Religion courses are well-structured and that the degree you obtain is of real value. But the experience of undergraduate study should be richer than the mere passing of assessment requirements and the School of Religion encourages you to participate in our continuing efforts to improve our procedures as the year advances and to make an evaluation of your experience at the end.

Your suggestions on every aspect of the programme will be invited throughout the year. At the end of each semester, you will be asked to complete an assessment of each of the modules that you have undertaken. The information that you supply is invaluable to staff in the further development of the School of Religion. You may also be asked to take part in an online survey conducted by the Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences. Please note that in any official survey you will remain anonymous, and your assessment of your experience in the School of Religion – whether positive, negative or both – is fed into a structured assessment of teaching and learning. Of course, you do not have to wait for these formal assessments to take place: staff are available at regular office hours (posted on their office doors at the start of the year) and they welcome your concerns and suggestions. Your class will also elect a class representative, who will be able to articulate your concerns through the appropriate channels.
10. Emergency Procedure

In the event of an emergency, dial Security Services on extension 1999. Security Services provide a 24-hour service to the college community, 365 days a year. They are the liaison to the Fire, Garda and Ambulance services and all staff and students are advised to always telephone extension 1999 (+353 1 896 1999) in case of an emergency.

Should you require any emergency or rescue services on campus, you must contact Security Services. This includes chemical spills, personal injury or first aid assistance. It is recommended that all students save at least one emergency contact in their phone under ICE (In Case of Emergency).

11. Health / Safety and Wellbeing Support

Health, Safety and Welfare at work are of crucial importance throughout Trinity College and the School of Religion is committed to upholding the College’s Health, Safety and Welfare policies.

The School also recognises and will ensure compliance with the requirements of the Safety, Health and Welfare at Work Act 2005; associated legislation made under the Act, and the College Safety Statement and College Policies and Codes of Practice documents. The Act requires that precautions are taken, as far as is reasonably practicable, to avoid endangering oneself or others by our actions / activities. All reasonable steps will be taken to ensure that the health, safety and welfare of all persons – be they staff, students or others – will not be put at risk. A copy of the School Health and Safety Statement is available from the School Office.
12. Key Dates - Academic Year 2021-2022
