Loss and Damage, Hope and Recovery

In conversation with the Rev Bob Kikuyu, Christian
Aid's Head of Global Theology

The impacts of the climate crisis are already being widely felt, devastating the lives of billions globally and destroying livelihoods.

Bob will help us reflect theologically on the Loss and Damage caused by the climate crisis as we search for signs of hope and recovery.

Organised by Christian Aid and the Irish Council of Churches. Hosted by the Irish School of Ecumenics, School of Religion, Theology, and Peace Studies.

Friday, 21st April, 10:30am - 12:30pm
