Module - EM7606

Theories and Processes of Conflict Resolution

Semester 2 (Jan-Feb 2020): Thursdays 7-10pm

This six-week module gives students an overview of a range of different approaches to conflict resolution in the context of international political conflicts. The predominant ‘liberal peacebuilding approach’ used by the international community since the 1990s is explored and critiqued. The importance of taking issue of gender or religious identity into account when trying to build peace is also considered.

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this module students should be able to:

- Understand the concept of peacebuilding and engage in critical discussion of international peacebuilding approaches
- Integrate analysis of gender and religious identities into approaches to building peace
- Gain critical knowledge of mediation processes in the international sphere
- Analyse the role of different ‘tracks’ in international conflict resolution
- Present persuasive written work with analytic arguments based on evidence, reading and reason

ECTS Value: 10

Assessment - a 3000-word essay on a conflict resolution topic.

Additional Material for the Module is on TCD Blackboard.
