Visit s to Places of Worship in Dublin & Seminar
Migration and Interfaith Understanding
Friday, 15 March 2019
School of Religion, Trinity College Dublin

Visits to Places of Worship
9.00 am - 3.30 pm

9.00 am – 10.15 am: Govinda’s Kirtan Centre (Guided by Dina Dayal Das)
- Tea will be provided by Hare Rama Hare Krishna Community in Dublin.
No. 83, Middle Abbey Street, Dublin 02

10.45 am – 12.15 pm: Gurdwara Guru Nanak Darbar (Guided by Dr. Jasbir Singh)
- A light lunch will be provided by the Sikh community in Dublin.
No.78, Serpentine Avenue, Dublin 4

1.00 pm – 2.00 pm: Clonskeagh Mosque (Friday Prayer)
2.00 pm – 2.45 pm: Islamic Cultural Centre (Guided by Dr. Ali Salim)
2.45 pm – 3.15 pm: Tea Break
No. 9 Roebuck Rd, Clonskeagh, Dublin 14

Only the students of School of Religion/TCD, Carlow College, The Priory Institute, Lumen Dominican Centre and Religious Formation Ministry Programme will join the visits to places of worship.

The seminar on Migration and Interfaith Understanding is open for all.

Seminar on Migration and Interfaith Understanding
4.00 – 6.00 pm
G 16, Irish School of Ecumenics/Loyola Building, Trinity College Dublin

Miss Fadilah Salawu
Youth Leader, Ashbourne Community School, Meath

Sr. Susie O’Rawe
Chaplain, St. Dominic’s College, Cabra, Dublin

Prof. Neville Cox
Professor of Law and Dean of Graduate Studies, Trinity College Dublin

Prof. Leo Lefebure
Professor of Theology, Georgetown University, Washington, D.C

For further information and registration please contact
Dr. Jude Lal Fernando, fernanla@tcd.ie (School of Religion, TCD)
Ms Mary Dooley mdooley@carlowcollege.ie (Carlow College)
Sr. Ann Concannon, anncon@loretohouse.com (Religious Formation Ministry Programme)
Fr. Peter O’Kane, peter.okane@prioryinstitute.com (The Priory Institute)
Dr. Sabine Schratz, schratzop@gmail.com (Lumen Dominican Centre)