

Advances in Neurogenic Swallowing Disorders - International Perspectives

Date: Thursday 7th December

Time: 9.00 – 5.00pm

Venue: Robert Emmet Lecture Theatre, Arts Building, Trinity College Dublin

Programme

- 09.00-09.15 Registration and welcome
- 09.15-09.45 Setting the scene for dysphagia rehabilitation for people with neurogenic dysphagia. (Prof Margaret Walshe, Ireland)
- 09.45-10.45 Theoretical underpinnings of skill based training to improve swallowing. (Prof Maggie Lee Huckabee, New Zealand)
- 10.45-11.00 Coffee break
- 11.00-12.00 The practicalities of skill based training to improve swallowing. (Prof Maggie Lee Huckabee, New Zealand)
- 12.00-12.45 Cough Skill Training as a rehabilitation approach. (Dr James Borders, USA)
- 12.45-13.00 Panel Discussion Q & A.
- 13.00-14.00 Lunch
- 14.00-14.45 Differentially diagnosing dysphagia in PD versus APD – implications for management and future directions. (Éadaoin Flynn, Ireland)
- 14.45-15.30 Clinical trial design in Parkinson's Disease – does research meet our clinical needs? (Julia Hirschwald, Ireland)
- 15.30-15.45 Tea break
- 15.45-16.30 New perspectives: How to FEES in Parkinson's Disease and Atypical Parkinson's Disease. (Prof Tobias Warnecke, Germany)
- 16.30-17.00 End of day Panel Discussion – future directions for clinical practice