UNDERGRADUATE

Undergraduate Degree Programmes

At the undergraduate level we offer high-quality and high-demand programmes both within the School and in alliances across the University. We have a tradition of student-centred learning and actively support the range of extra-curricular activities undertaken by our students. The student body is relatively diverse with a significant number of students from outside Ireland taking either full-degree programmes or visiting for one-year.

Incoming Students

Whether students are here for a single term, or an entire academic year, we hope their time at Trinity is both fun and academically rewarding.

A virtual Welcome Meeting for visiting students will be held at 10:30 on Wednesday, 23rd September 2020 via Microsoft Teams. Invitations will be sent directly to students.

Following the Welcome Meeting each department will host a virtual meeting where our coordinators will be happy to answer your queries. The schedule of the departmental meetings is as follows;

- Business: 11:00 to 12:00
- Economics: 11:30 to 12:30
- Political Science: 12:00 to 13:00
- Philosophy: 12:30 to 13:30
- Sociology: 13:00 to 14:00

Module Registration

Incoming students can apply for modules in Economics, Philosophy, Political Science and Sociology as listed here.

Incoming Students - Available Modules

This page contains links to all of the undergraduate modules within the School of Social Sciences and Philosophy (Economics, Political Science, Philosophy and Sociology) that are available to visiting students in Semester 1 and Semester 2. The modules are arranged by relevant departments.

Below please find a list of available modules for Incoming students. You can find the process for applying for modules here.

Students who will spend only the first semester in Trinity should select only Semester 1 modules.

Students who will spend only the second semester in Trinity should select only Semester 2 modules.

Full year students may select modules from Semester 1 and Semester 2 in line with their learning agreement. Students should note that if a module is a co-requisite this indicates that students taking Part A in Semester 1 must also take Part B in Semester 2.

Before filling your registration form ...

- Check:
 1. Have you got the right code and name?
 2. Do you have the required pre-requisites ...

Pre-requisites (equivalent)

- You will find these in the module outlines
- You may be asked to provide proof you have done an equivalent module to the pre-requisites
- You will not be permitted to take modules if you don't
- Only put modules on your form if you have the pre-requisites

Economic Analysis A

Module Code: ECU33011 (old code EC3110)

Module Title: Economic Analysis A

- ECTS Weighting: 5
- Semester/Term Taught: Semester 1
- Contact Hours: 22 hours of lectures and 4 hours of tutorials
- Module Personnel: Lecturer - Professor Michael Wycherley

Learning Outcomes

- Be actively conversant with the terminology of macroeconomics; Interpret macroeconomic data;
- Synthesize a broad range of topics in modern macroeconomics

Module Learning Aims

This module builds on the foundations of EC2110 & EC2111 Intermediate Economics, developing some of the topics from that module, and introducing some new ones.

Module Content

Macroeconomics: intertemporal consumption and labour supply; investment theory; money demand; the analysis of business cycles; monetary policy; fiscal policy.

Recommended Reading List

No prescribed text, readings and cases will be provided by the lecturer throughout the module.

Module Pre Requisite

EC2110 & EC2111 Intermediate Economics

Pre-requisites (Question)

- Question: What if the pre-requisite states that I should have done 'part A' of the module (which happened in Semester 1)? For example, Investment Analysis A is a pre-requisite for Investment Analysis B but I wasn't here last semester.
- The pre-requisites referring to 'part-A' of a module pair can be relaxed for one-term students. In other words, for example, you may choose Investment Analysis B, without having completed Investment Analysis A.

What happens next?

- Academic registry will notify you if any of the modules you have selected have a timetable clash – you will not be allowed to do these
- Academic registry will contact me to confirm acceptance
 - I will check pre-requisites
 - I will check quotas (priority to econ dept exchange, then school exchange, then others) – only quota in Economics is for Econometrics

Timing

- This process may take some time, please be patient.
- If lectures have started and you need access to online materials, email the lecturer concerned and ask for access
- Blackboard = mymodule.tcd.ie
- Your own Timetable (once you've registered for modules) = my.tcd.ie

Lecture and tutorial format

- Most modules have 2 hours of lectures and one tutorial per week
- All compulsory
- All teaching will be online
