This tradition finds expression today in a campus culture of scholarship, innovation, creativity, entrepreneurship and dedication to societal reform.

Distinctive Features of the Trinity Education

As a student at Trinity College Dublin you will have the opportunity to develop a strong expertise in your chosen subject areas but we believe that a university education should also encourage you to broaden your experience and your perspective beyond your core subjects.

This is why we have developed the seven features that make a Trinity Education distinctive. These features help our students to develop the qualities, skills and behaviours which are encompassed by the four Trinity Graduate Attributes: to think independently; to communicate effectively; to develop continuously; and to act responsibly.

Capstone Project

Trinity is a research-led university where every student has the opportunity to do a Capstone project as part of their undergraduate education. The Capstone project is a substantial independent research project that you will normally carry out in your final year. It will enable you to put into practice the skills and knowledge that you have acquired over your programme of study and to further develop the Trinity Graduate Attributes.

Global Mobility

The opportunity to study or work abroad as part of your studies is a key element of the Trinity Education. One third of our eligible undergraduate students currently avail of global mobility opportunities and we plan to increase this to one in two students over the coming years. Students usually avail of mobility opportunities in their third year of study in eligible programmes. Trinity is an international university with a diverse staff and student population that collaborates in international educational and research networks. In addition to exchange opportunities, you will study with peers, and be taught by academic staff, from all over the world.

Employability

Trinity is committed to preparing its students for the ever-changing challenges of the 21st-century workplace. Trinity is first in Ireland for employer reputation and alumni outcomes (QS Graduate Employability Ranking 2020). This is reflected in the Trinity Graduate Attributes and a wealth of opportunities for learning experiences that contribute to your employability. As a Trinity student you will have the chance to apply for the Trinity Employability Awards, run in partnership with key employers, and bid for innovative scholarships designed to help you develop research and leadership skills for both your degree program and your future career.

Trinity Electives

Trinity Electives are standalone modules that will give you the opportunity to broaden your knowledge beyond your own discipline. You can choose from a range of exciting modules that allow you to engage with Trinity's ground-breaking research, to experience diverse languages and cultures, and to consider how we can address key societal challenges. Each Trinity Elective has been designed specifically to help you develop the Trinity Graduate Attributes.

Co-Curriculum

Trinity students are encouraged to actively participate in the 170 student societies and sports clubs on campus. You'll learn outside the classroom through engaging with student life and through other extra-curricular activities such as internships and volunteering, which all support the development of the Trinity Graduate Attributes. As you progress through your years at Trinity, you will regularly reflect on your co-curricular activities and keep track of what you have learned from your experiences.

Open Modules

Open Modules are modules that are taught as part of other programmes but are complementary and related to your own programme of study. Choosing Open Modules will allow you to broaden your perspective on your core discipline(s) through exposure to knowledge, skills and ways of thinking associated with related fields. Open Modules will provide you with a wealth of opportunities to enrich the study of your core curriculum and to develop the Trinity Graduate Attributes.

Partners in Learning

At Trinity, we see students and staff as partners in the learning process. We expect students to actively engage with their programme of study, in collaboration with their instructors. Alongside traditional examinations you will be engaging in diverse forms of assessment, such as presentations, group projects, blogs, and essays. You will receive continuous feedback on your learning and build on what you have learned through the assessment process, developing both mastery of the subject matter and transferable skills.

QS Graduate Employability
Ranking 2020

Trinity Graduate Attributes

Students come to Trinity not only to acquire a certain set of facts or competencies but because they have an understanding of the sort of person they want to become. Building on the strong value placed on a solid disciplinary formation, we wanted to answer the question ‘what kind of person can I be?’ We distilled this sense of transformation into four Trinity Graduate Attributes listed below.

Trinity is Ireland's leading university

QS World University
Rankings 2020

Defining the Trinity Education, these attributes encompass the qualities, skills and abilities that our students have the opportunity to develop throughout their entire university experience – both in and outside the classroom in activities such as internships or volunteering. They will benefit our students not just in their careers, but in their future lives as individuals and members of society.

Trinity: A University of Global Consequence

Trinity can be Your University

A warm Trinity welcome awaits all our students. We believe that a diverse campus adds to the Trinity Experience for everyone, enhances their personal development and enriches the culture of the University.

Trinity is an open and inclusive university and we are proud to keep these values at our core.

- ▶ Our current students come from counties all across Ireland and from over 120 countries around the world.
- ▶ 26% of the student body are from outside Ireland, providing a true global community on Trinity's campus.
- ▶ The majority of undergraduate full degree entrants to Trinity are Irish.
- ▶ 24% of students gain admission to Trinity via educational access pathways. These include socio-economically disadvantaged students, students with a disability, and mature students. The Trinity Access Programmes (TAP) provide a range of post-entry supports for students entering the University through these routes.

If you are looking for an engaging, interesting and stimulating experience at a world-class university, then Trinity is for you!

A Diverse University

Diversity and inclusion are core values of Trinity, underpinned by specific commitments which aim to create "a community based on a collegiality in which all are encouraged to use their talents to achieve their potential." (Trinity College Dublin Strategic Plan, 2014-2019).

Our college community is composed of a rich mix of individuals who, through their own distinctive viewpoints, contribute to the intellectually challenging culture of the University. We are proud of our many successes in managing diversity and inclusion, for example, in access to education, in gender equality, in recognition of LGBT issues, and in disability issues.

As Ireland's foremost university our campus ethos is not only about respect and understanding, but an ethos where difference in individuals and in groups is supported and celebrated.

Our student community is representative of a broad range of gender, nationality, ability, age, sexual orientation, religion and socio-economic status. The diversity of the University's clubs and societies reflects this diversity within the Trinity community.

Hand in hand with our supports for diversity, being a student at Trinity is about making the most of every opportunity to fulfill your potential, and on that basis, we encourage and welcome people from all backgrounds to join our student community.

Don't be concerned if you live far away, or if your friends are considering other options. Don't worry if you are wondering if you will fit in at Trinity. By the time you have joined some of our clubs and societies during Freshers' Week and met lots of people with the same interests as you, made friends on your course through your class rep, met your personal tutor and student mentor, and gone to so many Students' Union events that you've lost count, you'll know that Trinity is your university!

Trinity's Location

Your University, Your City

Trinity sits in the heart of Dublin's city centre and over the centuries the city has grown-up around the University. Today, this is a great advantage for our students. Dublin is a vibrant, young, European capital city, and everything the city has to offer is easily accessible to Trinity students. The vast array of restaurants, cafés, delis and coffee shops (most offering student deals and discounts) cater for every taste and budget. Dublin's theatres, museums, bars and clubs ensure that there is always something exciting for students to enjoy every day of the year. There are plenty of places to shop, whether that's for your weekly groceries or a browse through leading high street stores on Grafton or Henry Street.

If you want to take time out to relax in nature, the city's parks (including Phoenix Park, one of the largest urban parks in Europe), an easily accessible coastline, beaches and the Dublin Mountains are all close to hand. For those new to the city, Dublin quickly becomes a home away from home, while for those students from Dublin, coming to Trinity gives them the chance to discover their city anew.

What Our Current International Students Say...

Roisin Gowen

Science
Cape Town, South Africa

“Dublin is an incredible city for students and Trinity’s location in Dublin city centre was very appealing to me. I was very impressed with the even split between female and male staff, lecturers, and students in my course. I knew from the beginning that this was a place where my role as a woman in science would be appreciated.

If you are unsure of something or have any questions, contact someone from the Global Room or message a student. The staff at the Global Room have all the answers to any practical answer you might have, whereas a student might be able to help you with more personal questions. There is no harm in wanting to know more and the more research you do, the more certain you can be that Trinity is the place for you. ”

Navika Mehta

PPES Student,
New Delhi, India

“ Although many of my peers decided to go to the UK or America, I was attracted to Trinity because of its reputation, location in the centre of Dublin city and the fact that Ireland is a smaller country, renowned for its friendliness. I truly have found Irish people to be very friendly and helpful. I am studying a four year degree course in Philosophy, Political Science, Economics and Sociology (PPES). Trinity is one of the only universities offering this combination of subjects.”

Yewhoan Hong

Law and French,
South Korea

“ The Law School boasts strong diplomatic relationships with various foreign law schools. I was lucky to have spent my third year in Strasbourg, France. Needless to say, it has been a life changing experience: not only was I able to improve my French, I met some great people from all corners of the globe with whom I made many memories. Within Trinity there are some great minded people. The friends you make here will last your lifetime. This, on top of everything, has made my time here all the more memorable.”

Arda Bener Caglayan

Trinity International
Foundation Programme,
Turkey

“ I have been living in Ireland since September and my experience has been great so far. I feel like Dublin has become my second home. One of the best things about both Trinity and Ireland is that you always feel welcome and included. By studying at Trinity you get the chance to be in an invigorating environment where you can meet people from all around the world and broaden your horizons.

For students who are considering attending Trinity my advice is that they should go for it and experience everything that college has to offer, from societies and clubs to campus life. They should know that the moment you enter the Front Gate, you are going to feel like you are home.

Turkish students should know that it is an extraordinary experience both academically and socially to study here in Trinity. Ireland is one of the friendliest countries in the world and that makes it such a welcoming place to study. Besides academic study, you also get a chance to experience Irish culture and country’s amazing diversity and scenery. However, you might need an umbrella...”

Alena Evteeva, Russia
Masters in Leadership and Management in Education

The reason for choosing Trinity is premised on a variety of factors. First and foremost, the University's rich history, which coincidentally matches its ability to adapt to modernity. Secondly, Dublin, the vibrant capital is the friendliest metropolis in Europe. And last but not least, I personally find a lot of inspiration in knowing that Oscar Wilde, one of my favourite writers, once wandered along its halls. Furthermore, Trinity is attractive for its fresh approach to education and the capability to provide both practical and theoretical knowledge."

Postgraduate Research

At Trinity College Dublin, the University of Dublin

Trinity is recognised as one of the world's leading research-intensive universities and its research continues to address issues of global, societal and economic importance.

The University's research strategy, based on developing multidisciplinary areas in Trinity, has the critical mass of world-class researchers needed to deliver research of global consequence.

Postgraduate Research Students

Trinity is Ireland's leading university, steeped in history with a reputation for excellence in education and research.

While our campus dates back over four hundred years, our research facilities and institutes sit right in the twenty first century. The University has research strengths that span the Sciences, Medicine, Engineering, Business, Arts and Humanities, a spectrum that is mirrored by our broad range of taught postgraduate courses and research opportunities at master's and doctorate level.

Our inspiring professors are global leaders in their fields, and they work alongside students in a common enterprise of discovery. The Trinity curriculum isn't just about imparting knowledge; it's aimed at developing the critical faculties of the mind, through freedom of expression, willingness to engage in debate and original research.

Employers worldwide hold Trinity graduates in high esteem. The University has produced generations of outstanding graduates. Some of the most famous people in Irish history have been educated here: writers like Oscar Wilde and Samuel Beckett; scientists like William Rowan Hamilton and E.T.S. Walton, who won the Nobel Prize for splitting the atom, as well as two Irish presidents, many industry leaders and entrepreneurs.

As a truly international university, we welcome applications from prospective postgraduate students anywhere in the world.

We hope you will consider choosing a course at Trinity for your postgraduate research, for an exciting new journey that will open your mind to new experiences, ways of thinking and friendships, many of which will last for a lifetime.

Applications are submitted online at www.tcd.ie/courses/postgraduate/research and must include a detailed research proposal. This is reviewed by the relevant School and acceptance is dependent on the quality of the proposal and availability of adequate supervision. The Dean of Graduate Studies then conducts the final review and approval subsequent to meeting all criteria.

Funding Opportunities

The University offers postgraduate awards which are available only to students intending to register for full-time higher research degrees (i.e. Ph.D.):

Postgraduate Ussher Fellowships

These postgraduate fellowships are only applicable to new entrants on the Research Register.

Postgraduate Fellowships are available to new entrants to the full-time Ph.D. register for entry in September and/or the following March of the same academic year (e.g. September 2019 and/or March 2020). The Fellowships aim to support and develop gifted research students. They are awarded competitively on academic merit.

The Fellowship fully covers EU and non-EU fees and provides an annual maintenance of €13,000* for three years. Fees will be covered and maintenance is payable monthly via Trinity payroll directly to your bank account.

Trinity is the first and only Irish university to join the prestigious ranks of the League of European Research Universities (LERU)

The fellowship is unrelated to teaching. It is important to be aware that income received by the award recipient from other sources (such as private tuition, research funding), can be to the maximum annual income level of €18,000* excluding fees but including the studentship maintenance.

You must make your application for the Ussher award in conjunction with your Ph.D. application. To apply for the funding during your online application, simply select the award (Studentship or Ussher Award) you wish to be considered for from the drop down menu in the section of the application form titled "Funding/Financial Support".

Student Testimonials

Postgraduate Students

Hoa Xuan Nguyen

Ph.D. in Civil, Structural & Environmental Engineering
Vietnam

“ I decided to study at Trinity for a number of reasons; it is high ranking, and recognised internationally as Ireland’s premier university and as a world leading research-intensive university; Trinity professors are world-leading experts in their fields with many journals, projects and academic contributions; and the location in Dublin, the capital of Ireland where you can discover the Irish culture and see cultures from students all over the world.”

Alvaro Paul Diaz

Ph.D. in Law
Chile

“ Besides my supervisor, one of the things I like the most of Trinity is that its library has the status of a legal deposit in both Ireland and the United Kingdom. This means that it is entitled to receive all the books published in these two countries, a privilege which is shared with only a few of the most prestigious British universities. This makes the Trinity library really impressive, with more than five million volumes. Likewise, its electronic databases are very good, so you will seldom come across an article of a legal journal which is not available to you as a Trinity student.”

Mariana de Paula

M.Sc. in Politics and Public Policy
Brazil

“ I visited Trinity in March, 2014, while travelling around Ireland and immediately fell in love with the campus. A few months later, after going back to Brazil, I decided to do a master’s abroad and, fortunately, I found the course I was looking for at Trinity. The application process is very different from the one in Brazil, but I had all the help I needed from my department.

Studying at Trinity was a great experience. The campus is beautiful, full of people and it hosts one of the best beer gardens in Dublin – The Pav. I had the chance to improve my English and also my political knowledge.”

“ Trinity is one of the most respected universities in the world. I was not only fascinated by the curriculum provided here, but also with the diversity present in the University. The culture of the University is great, and makes every student feel like home.

Life at Trinity is very different from the colleges back in India. You need to have a more practical approach towards your course, which will help a lot in the future. Dublin is an extremely safe city to live in, and you will have no problems being an outsider.”

Alejandra Nuñez Asomoza

Ph.D. student at the Centre for English Language Learning and Teaching

“ Coming to Trinity is one of the best things that has happened to me. The beauty of the campus is so inspiring and there is always something new to discover as one walks around it. I have been given all the conditions necessary to work on my research. The library resources are great, and the staff around the campus has always been helpful.”

for an international career.

Trinity is committed to educating globally aware and engaged citizens and as such, Trinity students are strongly encouraged to explore opportunities to study, work, or volunteer abroad. Gaining international experience gives our students the opportunity to experience new ways of learning, to learn about different cultures and demonstrate your ability to work internationally after graduation.

Study, Work and Volunteer Abroad

Trinity students can study abroad as an integral part of their degree and Trinity has partnership agreements with many other world-leading universities.

Trinity is a long-standing participant in the Erasmus Programme for European exchange, and there are hundreds of options for students who wish to study in Europe. Students may also study overseas at partner institutions in Australia, Canada, China, Hong Kong, India, Japan, Latin America, South Korea, Russia, Singapore, the United States, and New Zealand.

Our students on non-EU exchanges are able to take advantage of our International Welcome Programme. The International Welcome Programme connects Trinity students on exchange abroad with alumni volunteers in the local region. More than 140,000 Trinity alumni are based across 158 countries worldwide and Trinity students benefit enormously from their expertise on their study abroad destinations. It gives students an initial point of contact and support in their new country to help them really enjoy and make the most of their time overseas! Read about our current students' study abroad experiences at: tcdglobal.wordpress.com/category/outbound-students/

Summer Programmes

Many of our prestigious partner universities offer short summer programmes in cities across the world. Each year Trinity students are offered discounted prices and a number of tuition-free places with our partners:

www.tcd.ie/study/other-courses/summer-schools/

Short-term Study Abroad: Module Elective

Some courses also have shorter-term international field trips available as elective modules. Final year students in our School of Natural Science can take a module in Tropical Ecology and Conservation. This involves an 11-day residential field course in East Africa at the Great Rift Valley.

Visas

If you are a citizen of the European Union (EU), you do not need a visa to enter and live in Ireland. Some, but not all, non-EU/EEA students require an entry visa for Ireland. We advise students to apply for their visas early. The list of visa-required countries can be found at the INIS website: www.inis.gov.ie.

It is important to note that ALL non-EU students, whether visa-required or not, must register with the Irish Naturalisation and Immigration Service (INIS) for permission to remain in the state. Students must show their offer letter at airport immigration where they will receive a temporary stamp in their passport. They must register with INIS within the time limit specified on their temporary stamp. You can request a visa offer letter by emailing academic.registry@tcd.ie

Applying for a Visa

Students should submit their visa applications using the AVATS facility at www.visas.inis.gov.ie. The application will only be processed when the online form is completed and the required documentation, passport photograph and appropriate fee are received by the relevant offices as indicated by the online system. There is a dedicated visa processing office in China, India, Nigeria, Russia, United Arab Emirates and the United Kingdom. Non-EU students resident in these countries, please refer to your local Irish Embassy website for further details or further documentation which may be required.

Student Life at Trinity

Your First Year at Trinity

Freshers' Week

What happens after you join us in Trinity? Your first week is known as Freshers' Week. There are no classes, so it's all about meeting your new classmates, information sessions, seeing what sports clubs and societies you want to join, meeting your student mentor who will give you a tour of campus and organise social events, meeting your tutor who will provide support to you throughout your years in Trinity, and of course, the Freshers' Ball.

During Freshers' Week you can also meet people from the Sports Centre, the Library and Student Supports and Services (e.g. Student Counselling, Health Service, Disability Service, Chaplaincy, Student Learning Service, Careers Service and the Day Nursery). These are the services whose job it is to make sure that you get the best out of your time in Trinity.

What happens after Freshers' Week?

After the excitement of Freshers' Week, teaching starts and you get a chance to settle into your course. Most classes are a mixture of lectures and tutorials and some have practicals as well. The tutorials are less formal and give you a chance to explore and discuss the topics covered in lectures with your classmates and teaching assistants.

Your class representative and your mentors organise events throughout the year that give you further opportunities to get to know your classmates.

As the first year progresses there are many other events to make sure that you enjoy your time in Trinity, including Re-Freshers' Week in week 4, which gives you another chance to join sports clubs and societies.

Trinity in Twelve Weeks

The "Trinity in Twelve Weeks" programme aims to continue your orientation during your first semester and help your transition to university life. The 'Trinity in Twelve Weeks' programme has a new theme every week, through study and exam skills to how to look after yourself while you're at university. Your mentors will be in touch with you every week to let you know what the week's theme is and to arrange events and activities.

University life is about so much more than just education and nowhere is this more evident than at Trinity. Trinity sits in the heart of Dublin city where there are endless extracurricular and recreational opportunities. I hadn't really considered studying outside of the US, but was really impressed by my first contact with Trinity at a talk at school. I also met with the Head of Admissions at Trinity's Open Day held in the US. The individual contact, support and attention from Trinity staff has been second to none.

All my professors are truly excellent. I've been surprised at how available they have been. They also teach tutorials, which is amazing. I'm living in Trinity Hall campus accommodation, which is great. There are plenty of US students around, but I'm so happy to be sharing with other Irish students, as it gives me the opportunity to integrate and experience Irish culture at another level.

Your Support Network

Matthew Moore

Law and Business

There are three things that are apparent to me from the fantastic years that I have spent at Trinity: Firstly, the atmosphere is very friendly and welcoming; secondly, there is a huge amount of support for students and many aimed specifically at mature students; and lastly, and in many ways most importantly, there are a huge range of extracurricular activities.

Trinity is an exciting place, full of opportunities to learn, make friends, and experience new things. While Trinity delivers world class courses, it is not just about your academic development: we also want Trinity to be a place where you can develop socially, morally, culturally and personally. There is always someone to listen and help. We want to make sure that Trinity is a place where you are given the best chance to reach your goals.

Personal Tutor

In your first week in Trinity you will be assigned a personal tutor (a member of our academic staff). Your personal tutor will then be available throughout your time in Trinity to offer help and advice on topics such as changing course, deferring exams, appeals of progression decisions, taking a year out, financial difficulties as well as family and personal problems. Find out more at: www.tcd.ie/senior_tutor

Student Mentors

You'll meet your Student 2 Student (S2S) mentors during Freshers' Week and they will make sure that you know other people in your course before your classes even start. They will also show you around the campus and will keep in regular touch, inviting you to events on and off campus. S2S also offers Peer Supporters, students available for one-to-one conversations on request. They're highly trained, confidential and very approachable. All S2S volunteers are students, just like you, so you never have to worry about asking them a question or talking to them about anything that's worrying you. Health Care Provision in Ireland

All EU students from outside the Republic of Ireland pursuing a full degree programme should contact the Health Service Executive for advice regarding healthcare provision at: www.hse.ie

- ▶ All EU students should bring with them a European Health Insurance Card issued in their country of origin. This will entitle them to free prescriptions

In order to register with the Irish Naturalisation and Immigration Service, as all non-EU students are required to do, you must show proof of health insurance to cover any major medical care necessary during your stay. Please see www.tcd.ie/students/orientation/add-int for further details.

Disability Service

The Disability Service aims to develop clear and effective support systems at all stages in the student journey, from entering university, to graduation, to employment. Students with a disability are encouraged to register with the Disability Service at Trinity to seek supports where the disability could affect their ability to participate fully in all aspects of their life in college. Here are a few, but not all, of the supports and services available to students with disabilities:

- ▶ A tailored pre-university orientation programme for entrants and parents
- ▶ A Disability Officer who will assess your needs and work with you during your student journey
- ▶ The use of assisted technologies to assist in your learning
- ▶ Occupational Therapy support, which provides confidential, practical support for students who may be experiencing mental health difficulties and/or physical and sensory difficulties.
