Lauryn Musgrove
McCann – Australia
Undergraduate: Law

“The professors and teaching staff at Trinity are incredible and are always there to answer questions and lend a hand when you need. Everyone makes the effort to be nice and welcoming – especially to international students. I would describe Trinity as supportive because there is always someone who is willing to help.”

Audrey Chew – Malaysia
Undergraduate: Psychology and Sociology

“My memories over the four years were a celebration of learning, trying new things I never did before, volunteering with non-profit organisations, making the best of friends from across the world, while pursuing my own personal passions of music and travel. This all challenged and nurtured my mindset of thinking. Inevitably it made me fall in love with Trinity, Dublin, and Ireland.”

Applicant Guide

For International Postgraduate Students

Application Process

Entry to Irish universities is competitive, and no graduate applicant, from Ireland or any other country has an automatic right to admission. Most courses at Trinity have a restricted number of places available for postgraduate students.

The range of studies on offer is vast and the standard set for postgraduate study is exceptionally high. This combination, together with the range of ancillary facilities in the immediate vicinity of the University, offers an almost unparalleled learning experience to all postgraduate students.

Online Applications

All course information and online application details are available at www.tcd.ie/courses/postgraduate

All applications for postgraduate research and taught programmes should be made online by logging on to my.tcd.ie

Throughout the application and admission process, communications between Trinity and the applicant will primarily be via online messaging within the my.tcd.ie portal, and via email. Please note that incomplete applications cannot be processed. Applicants should make all reasonable effort prior to registration to ensure that the course/programme they are registering for meets their expectations by:

- ▶ Contacting the relevant course co-ordinator or prospective supervisor/research director.

- ▶ Accessing all information available on the courses website www.tcd.ie/courses/postgraduate and the specific school/course web pages linked on this site.

Once you have submitted an online application you will be sent an acknowledgment email to the email address you provided when setting up your user account on my.tcd.ie applicant portal. The applicant portal will allow you to send and receive communications in respect of your application to Trinity. You will be able to track the progress of your application at every stage of the admissions process; update your personal information, view decisions made on your application(s) and accept or refuse any offers you may receive.

- ▶ meet the English language requirements

Some courses may require higher standards or require you to take further tests or attend an interview.

Supporting Documents

When you apply for a postgraduate course online, you will have the option to upload your supporting documents. The following information is required before a decision can be made on your application:

- ▶ Certified copy of degree certificate(s)

- ▶ A recognised certificate of English language competency if English is not your first language. (See English language requirements).

English Language Requirements

All applicants whose first language is not English and who have not been educated through the medium of English must present one of the following qualifications in the English language:

- ▶ IELTS: Grade 6.5 overall.
- ▶ TOEFL: 88 internet-based, 570 paper-based, 230 computer-based.

www.ets.org/toefl
www.ielts.org
www.cambridgeesol.org/exams
www.tcd.ie/slscs/english/pmpp.php

An applicant whose first language is not English but who has taken a degree through the medium of English may be eligible provided they did not complete their studies more than two years prior to admission. However, some courses may request applicants to present an English language qualification under certain circumstances.

Visa-required applicants who meet Trinity's English language requirements may be required to present an additional English language proficiency qualification such as IELTS, TOEFL or PTE for visa application purposes. (See INIS language requirements, page 20)

Ranked 101st in the world, Trinity is recognised as one of the world's leading research-intensive universities and its research continues to address issues of global, societal and economic importance.

Trinity has research strengths that span the Sciences, Medicine, Engineering, Business, Arts and Humanities, a spectrum that is mirrored by our broad range of taught postgraduate courses and research opportunities at master's and doctorate level. Our inspiring professors are global leaders in their fields, and they work alongside students in a common enterprise of discovery.

The University has produced generations of outstanding graduates including writers such as Oscar Wilde and Samuel Beckett; scientists such as William Rowan Hamilton and E.T.S. Postgraduate Research Students

As a truly international university, we welcome applications from prospective postgraduate students globally and we hope you will consider choosing Trinity for your postgraduate research.

Applications are submitted online at www.tcd.ie/courses/postgraduate/research and must include a detailed research proposal. This is reviewed by the relevant School and acceptance is dependent on the quality of the proposal and availability of adequate supervision. The Dean of Graduate Studies then conducts the final review and approval subsequent to meeting all criteria. All students undertaking a research degree are assigned to a single supervisor, though for some students there may also be an additional advisor.

Funding Opportunities

The University offers postgraduate awards which are available only to students intending to register for full-time higher research degrees (i.e. PhD). More information on postgraduate funding and scholarships can be found on our website: www.tcd.ie/study/postgraduate/scholarships-funding.

Visas

If you are an EU citizen, you do not need a visa to enter and live in Ireland. Some, but not all, non-EU/EEA students require an entry visa for Ireland. We advise students to apply for their visas early. To check if you need a visa, please visit the INIS webpage below:

www.inis.gov.ie/en/INIS/Pages/check-irish-visa

It is important to note that all non-EU students, whether visa-required or not, must register with the Irish Naturalisation and Immigration Service (INIS) for permission to remain in the state. Students must show their offer letter at airport immigration where they will receive a temporary stamp in their passport. They must register with INIS within the time limit specified on their temporary stamp. You can request a visa offer letter by emailing academic.registry@tcd.ie

Applying for a Visa

Students should submit their visa applications using the AVATS facility at: www.visas.inis.gov.ie. The application will only be processed when the online form is completed and the required documentation, passport photograph and appropriate fee are received by the relevant offices as indicated by the online system. There is a dedicated visa processing office in China, India, Nigeria, Russia, United Arab Emirates and the United Kingdom. Non-EU students resident in these countries, please refer to your local Irish Embassy website for further details or further documentation which may be required.

Please note that all information in relation to visas and immigration registration is subject to change in light of restrictions that may be in place due to Covid-19 at the time of application.

Please refer to the links below for Visa Guidelines:

► www.inis.gov.ie/INIS/pages/students

► Online guidance is available at: <https://goo.gl/FuvJhl>

Mandatory Documentation

► It is a mandatory requirement for Non-EU students to have private health insurance and you will be required to show evidence. Non-EU students who will be resident in Ireland for a minimum of one academic year may apply to HSE www.hse.ie/eng to be assessed for entitlements to public hospital for treatment. Non-EU students staying less than a year do not have any entitlement to free or subsidised health services.

► Proof of sufficient funds to support yourself while in Ireland (bank account statements for six months previously and/or grant/sponsorship letter).

Often the deposit amount required to obtain a visa is higher than the amount required by the University to hold your place. You are advised to pay the deposit amount required to obtain your visa. Your fee balance will be adjusted accordingly. If you have questions, please contact the Academic Registry. Visa letters can be generated by visiting the my.tcd.ie portal and selecting 'My Applications' and clicking on Generate Visa Letter. If assistance is required please email academic.registry@tcd.ie. International students are advised to use the Pay to Study option to pay fees. The Pay to Study receipt is accepted by the Department of Justice for visa purposes.

► Show evidence of language proficiency. For INIS language requirement please refer to: www.inis.gov.ie/en/INIS/pages/study

► Any other documents as requested by INIS or the Irish Embassy through which you are applying. The full list of required documentation is available on the visa and immigration website. See www.inis.gov.ie

Checking Your Visa Status

You should generally allow 8 weeks for processing time. You can check online for visa decisions using your visa application number at: www.inis.gov.ie/en/INIS/pages/Visa-Decisions. When your visa is approved, the Embassy to which you sent your documents will affix a visa to your passport.

Student Life at Trinity

Immerse yourself in a broad range of sports clubs and student societies and get a real sense of the 'Trinity Experience'.

Your first days at Trinity

Freshers' Week

Trinity offers orientation to all new postgraduate and undergraduate students prior to the start of the academic year. This week of orientation is known as Freshers' Week. There are no classes, so it's all about meeting your new classmates, student support information sessions, seeing what sports clubs and societies you want to join, meeting your student mentor who will give you a tour of campus and organise social events, meeting your tutor who will provide support to you throughout your years in Trinity, and of course, the Freshers' Ball.

During Freshers' Week you can also meet people from the Sports Centre, the Library and Student Supports and Services. These are the services whose job it is to make sure that you get the best out of your time in Trinity.

www.tcd.ie/students/orientation

A specific International Postgraduate Student Orientation takes place before teaching commences. Details are available at www.tcd.ie/students/orientation/postgraduates

Please note that a hybrid of virtual and face to face supports may still be in place for 2021 entry due to Covid-19.

What Happens After Freshers' Week?

After the excitement of Freshers' Week, teaching starts and you get a chance to settle into your course. Most classes are a mixture of lectures and tutorials and some have practicals as well. The tutorials are less formal and give you a chance to explore and discuss the topics covered in lectures with your classmates and teaching assistants.

Your class representative and your mentors organise events throughout the year that give you further opportunities to get to know your classmates.

Trinity in Twelve Weeks

The "Trinity in Twelve Weeks" virtual programme aims to continue your orientation during your first semester and help your transition to university life. The programme has a new theme every week, through study and exam skills to how to look after yourself while at university. Your mentors will be in touch with you every week to let you know what the week's theme is and to arrange events and activities. Find out more at:

www.tcd.ie/students/orientation/twelve-weeks

Deniz Unsal – Turkey

The most enjoyable part of my experience in Ireland is Trinity's multicultural and multidisciplinary environment. Trinity offers an academic environment where students from various countries and disciplines come together.”

Student Entertainment

University life is about so much more than just education and nowhere is this more evident than at Trinity. The University sits in the heart of Dublin city where there are endless extracurricular and recreational opportunities. You can immerse yourself in a broad range of sports clubs and student societies and through these activities you will get a real sense of the 'Trinity Experience', something that extends far beyond lectures, tutorials and exams.

You will also have the benefit of one of the best Students' Unions in the country, providing students with a wide range of entertainment and events throughout your time in Trinity.

Student Societies

At Trinity, we have 120 student societies which constitute some of the most dynamic and active university student societies in Ireland with everything from the Animation Society to the Zoological Society. We are home to the world's oldest student societies, the 'Hist' or Historical Society founded in 1770 and the 'Phil' which is the oldest debating society in the world, founded in 1683, and whose guests have included everyone from Hollywood heavyweights such as Martin Scorsese to International Space Station commander Chris Hadfield. E3 - Balanced Solutions for a Better World

Trinity has embarked on an ambitious project to expand education and research activities across three of its Schools; The Schools of Engineering, Natural Sciences, and Computer Science & Statistics. This expansion is being executed as a single strategic activity in the area of "Engineering, Environment, and Emerging Technologies", or E3.

At the forefront of this expansion will be the new Martin Naughton E3 Learning Foundry, a state of the art 7,256 square metre new learning facility based on the main Trinity campus, which will deliver new teaching facilities and an innovative interactive learning space for undergraduate and postgraduate students.

With our leading research professors and staff, graduates will become co-creators of their futures and that of generations to come. Together they will seek out 'balanced solutions for a better world' and enable society to live on this planet in a more sustainable and equitable way.

E3 will position Ireland at the forefront of fields of research in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (the STEM disciplines), that are crucial for future economic competitiveness. It will educate engineers and scientists for employment in existing and new technology sectors, equip them with the skills and attributes to lead in the creation of new businesses, and place Ireland in a leadership role globally for the quality of graduates in the STEM disciplines. “I always dreamed of going to a renowned university. I visited many universities but none of them appealed to me the way Trinity did: through the professors being one of a kind, having state of the art facilities and the community having a real family atmosphere. I instantly knew I wanted to be part of such a great university. I am really enjoying my course, we have a great dynamic and the students and professors are extremely welcoming. I love how quickly I have been able to adapt.”
