

CHILDREN IN CARE RESEARCH FORUM

SHARING RESEARCH ON CHILDREN IN CARE, CARE LEAVERS, & CARERS

A new initiative convened by Professor Robbie Gilligan & Assistant Professor Eavan Brady (School of Social Work & Social Policy, Trinity College Dublin) to promote knowledge exchange among researchers and practitioners on the island of Ireland.

Speakers

Dr. Adrian van Breda (University of Johannesburg; Visiting Fellow at Queen's University, Belfast): Young people transitioning from residential care in South Africa

Dr. Muireann Ní Raghallaigh & Dr Liam Thornton (University College Dublin): Vulnerable childhood, vulnerable adulthood: Direct Provision as aftercare for separated children in Ireland

Dr. David Williams (Dublin Institute of Technology): Recognising, valuing and supporting the contribution of birth children of foster carers to the care system

Eavan Brady (Trinity College Dublin): A life course study of the educational pathways of adults who were in care as children

Wednesday 5th April 2017 // 10am-1pm

3 College Green (Room 1.04), Trinity College Dublin (map)

For further information contact Eavan Brady (bradye3@tcd.ie)

Registration not required!