

Last Name	First Name	Email Address	Areas of interest	Methodological expertise:	Further details
Byrne	Julie	byrnej18@tcd.ie	Online learning and development in higher education, continuing professional development, professional careers; regulation of health and social professions, leadership and people management in human service organisations	Qualitative methods (in-depth interviewing, career histories, focus groups)	http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=BYRNEJ18
Conlon	Catherine	conlonce@tcd.ie	Gender, sexuality and reproduction; 'Fertile body' as site of regulation and agency for women; Family relations particularly family formation and sexual socialisation processes within families; Intergenerational relations; Ontology, epistemology and re/presentation in (post)qualitative research.	Qualitative and Post-Qualitative methods specialising in Grounded Theory; Narrative Methods (Voice Centred Relational Method (VCRM) and Biographical Narrative Interviewing Method (BNIM)). Putting post-qualitative critiques to work to explore representational formats beyond text through collaborations with Creative Arts Practitioners.	http://people.tcd.ie/conlonce https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Fz6qmIKQioo
Curry	Philip	pcurry@tcd.ie	Intergroup relations; prejudice and discrimination; refugee studies, especially the role of public attitudes in refugee policy formation.	Quantitative; Qualitative; Mixed methods; Case studies; Applied experimental research; Psychometrics.	http://people.tcd.ie/pcurry
Elliffe	Ruth	relliffe@tcd.ie			http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=relliffe
Emon	Ayeshah	emona@tcd.ie	Intersectionality studies, health care, education policy, welfare states	Qualitative methodologies (focus on ethnographic research, in-depth interviews, case histories, and participatory research approaches)
Feely	Michael	mfeely@tcd.ie	Critical disability studies, with a particular emphasis on intellectual disability; supporting self-advocacy by people with intellectual disabilities; gender and sexuality studies; social theory, especially poststructuralism, posthumanism and new-materialism.	Qualitative methodologies especially poststructuralist discourse analysis and new-materialist methodologies (e.g. assemblage theory, actor network theory)	http://peoplefinder.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=MFEELY
Flynn	Susan	Sflynn7@tcd.ie	Child protection and childhood disability; critical disability studies; austerity and economic perspectives on childhood disability; qualitative intellectual disability research; and biographical narrative methods.	Qualitative narrative methods with intellectual disability; quantitative, qualitative, and desk-based approaches to social research.
Garcia Iriarte	Eduarne	iriartee@tcd.ie	Disability Studies, social inclusion of people with disabilities, especially community living, inclusive education and inclusive research with people with intellectual disability. Disability, migration and ethnic minorities. Participatory evaluation approaches and evaluation capacity building.	Qualitative methods (interviews, focus groups), participatory research and evaluation approaches.	http://peoplefinder.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=IRIARTEE
Gilligan	Robert	robbie.gilligan@tcd.ie	Children and young people at risk of exclusion (in state care; leaving care; migrant and refugee; ethnic minority; disabled); marginalised youth transitions; children and youth issues in international development	Qualitative methods; school based research; cross-national research	http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=rgillign
Holt	Stephanie	sholt@tcd.ie	Domestic violence with a specific focus on the impact on children and young people; the correlation between domestic violence and disability issues; child protection and Welfare practice with domestic violence and intimate partner homicide. Secondly early intervention and family support.	Qualitative in-depth semi-structured individual and focus group interviewing and Evaluations	http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=SHOLT
Houston	Stan	shouston@tcd.ie			http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=SHOUSTON
Lolich	Luciana	lolichl@tcd.ie	The expansion of a market logic in care and its societal consequences. Ageing and care technologies.	Qualitative methods: in-depth semi-structured individual and focus group interviewing	http://peoplefinder.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=LOLICHL
Mayock	Paula	pmayock@tcd.ie	Young people and youth issues; youth 'at risk'; homelessness & housing; drug use; alcohol use; risk behaviour; sexual health attitudes and behaviour; relationships and sexuality education; LGBT mental health	Qualitative methods (in-depth interviewing, biographical interviewing, focus groups); Longitudinal Qualitative Research	http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=PMAYOCK
McEvoy	Pamela	pmcevoy@tcd.ie
O'Connor	Erna	erna.oconnor@tcd.ie	Social work practitioner research; bereavement; trauma; relationship-based social work practice; reflective practice; practice teaching; professional supervision; social work and migration.	Qualitative methods (in particular Constructivist Grounded Theory)	http://people.tcd.ie/erna.oconnor
O'Sullivan	Eoin	tosullvn@tcd.ie	Homelessness; Travellers; history of institutional provision for deviant populations; penal policy	Archival research; secondary qualitative and quantitative data analysis.	https://www.tcd.ie/research/profiles/?profile=tosullvn
Spratt	Trevor	sprattt@tcd.ie	Professional practice in social work with families and children. How organisations respond to legislation and social policy in the area of child protection/welfare. Comparison of patterns of child protection/welfare practices internationally. Adverse childhood experiences and links with outcomes across the life-course. Evidence based practice. Decision making by social workers in child welfare/protection cases.	Quantitative and qualitative methodologies.	http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=SPRATTT
Timonen	Virpi	virpi.timonen@tcd.ie	Ageing & older adults; the life course; intergenerational relationships; family relations; welfare states and social policy as they impact on older adults and their families	Qualitative methods, in particular Grounded Theory	http://people.tcd.ie/timonenv