

Last Name	First Name	Email Address	Areas of interest	Methodological expertise:	Further details
Byrne	Julie	byrnej18@tcd.ie	Professional careers; regulation of health & social care professionals; management & change in human service organisations; training & development strategies; continuing professional development (CPD); online learning	Qualitative methods (in-depth interviewing, career histories, focus groups)	http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=BYRNEJ18
Conlon	Catherine	conlonce@tcd.ie	Gender, sexuality and reproduction; 'Fertile body' as site of regulation and agency for women; Family relations particularly family formation and sexual socialisation processes within families; Intergenerational relations; Ontology, epistemology and re/presentation in (post)qualitative research.	Qualitative and Post-Qualitative methods specialising in Grounded Theory; Narrative Methods (Voice Centred Relational Method (VCRM) and Biographical Narrative Interviewing Method (BNIM)). Putting post-qualitative critiques to work to explore representational formats beyond text through collaborations with Creative Arts Practitioners.	http://people.tcd.ie/conlonce https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Fz6qmiKQioo
Curry	Philip	pcurry@tcd.ie	All aspects of human migration and the reaction of settled communities to it. Racism and prejudice. Intergroup relations.	Quantitative; Qualitative; Mixed methods; Case studies; Applied experimental research; Psychometrics.	http://people.tcd.ie/pcurry
Feely	Michael	mfeely@tcd.ie	Critical disability studies, with a particular emphasis on intellectual disability; supporting self-advocacy by people with intellectual disabilities; gender and sexuality studies; social theory, especially poststructuralism, posthumanism and new-materialism.	Qualitative methodologies especially poststructuralist discourse analysis and new-materialist methodologies (e.g. assemblage theory, actor network theory)	http://peoplefinder.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=MFEELY
Foreman	Maeve	maeve.foreman@tcd.ie	Health related social work; HIV/AIDS; LGBTQI issues; sexual health, sexuality & disability; refugees & asylum seekers;	Qualitative methods (in-depth interviewing, focus groups)	http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=mforeman
Garcia Iriarte	Eduar	iriartee@tcd.ie	Human rights and disability, intellectual disability, community living and participation, inclusive education, inclusive research with people with intellectual disabilities	Qualitative methods (interviews, focus groups) and participatory research approaches	http://peoplefinder.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=IRIARTEE
Gilligan	Robert	robbie.gilligan@tcd.ie	Children and young people at risk of exclusion (in state care; leaving care; migrant and refugee; ethnic minority; disabled); marginalised youth transitions; children and youth issues in international development	Qualitative methods; school based research; cross-national research	http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=rgillign
Holt	Stephanie	sholt@tcd.ie	Domestic violence with a specific focus on the impact on children and young people; the correlation between domestic violence and disability issues; child protection and Welfare practice with domestic violence and intimate partner homicide. Secondly early intervention and family support.	Qualitative in-depth semi-structured individual and focus group interviewing and Evaluations	http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=SHOLT
Kirwan	Gloria	kirwangm@tcd.ie	Mental Health; Group work; Social Work History		http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=KIRWANGM
Mayock	Paula	pmayock@tcd.ie	Young people and youth issues; youth 'at risk'; homelessness & housing; drug use; alcohol use; risk behaviour; sexual health attitudes and behaviour; relationships and sexuality education; LGBT mental health	Qualitative methods (in-depth interviewing, biographical interviewing, focus groups); Longitudinal Qualitative Research	http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=PMAYOCK
O'Connor	Erna	erna.oconnor@tcd.ie	Social work practitioner research; bereavement; trauma; relationship-based social work practice; reflective practice; practice teaching; professional supervision; social work and migration.	Qualitative methods (in particular Constructivist Grounded Theory)	http://people.tcd.ie/erna.oconnor
O'Sullivan	Eoin	tosullvn@tcd.ie	Homelessness; Travellers; history of institutional provision for deviant populations; penal policy	Archival research; secondary qualitative and quantitative data analysis.	https://www.tcd.ie/research/profiles/?profile=tosullvn
Spratt	Trevor	sprattt@tcd.ie	Professional practice in social work with families and children. How organisations respond to legislation and social policy in the area of child protection/welfare. Comparison of patterns of child protection/welfare practices internationally. Adverse childhood experiences and links with outcomes across the life-course. Evidence based practice. Decision making by social workers in child welfare/protection cases.	Quantitative and qualitative methodologies.	http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=SPRATTT
Timonen	Virpi	virpi.timonen@tcd.ie	Ageing & older adults; the life course; intergenerational relationships; family relations; welfare states and social policy as they impact on older adults and their families	Qualitative methods, in particular Grounded Theory	http://people.tcd.ie/timonenv
Walsh	Patricia	trish.walsh@tcd.ie	(i) Therapeutic interventions with children and families over the lifespan; (ii) bereavement support, end-of-life care and loss; (iii) solution-focused and strengths-based approaches; (iv) gender, transnationalism and migration; (v) critical perspectives on helping professions; (vi) Inclusive practice: the experiences of migrant and ethnically diverse carers and social workers in Ireland.	Mixed methods, qualitative methods, phenomenological research and analysis, evaluation	http://people.tcd.ie/Profile?Username=PAWALSH