

Trinity Access 21 (TA21): Child Safeguarding Statement (February 2019)

Trinity Access 21 (TA21) works with students from participating ('linked') schools, both primary and secondary and also with students who continue their education journey to Trinity College Dublin through entry routes such as HEAR and the Foundation Course run by TA21. These students are often from underrepresented socio-economic groups in third level. Through educational programmes and offerings it is TA21's aim to have future students aspire to go to college and support students to succeed while in Trinity College Dublin. It is the policy of TA21 as part of Trinity College Dublin to safeguard the welfare of all children by protecting them from all forms of abuse. TA21 is committed to safeguarding young people and vulnerable adults, and provide a safe space where they can connect with their full educational potential through programmes and events such as:

- Primary School Activities:
 - Bookmarks
 - Maths & Science Week
- Junior Cycle Activities:
 - Campus Visits
 - Educational Awards
 - Med Day
- Senior Cycle Activities:
 - TY Placements
 - Bridge 21 Programmes
 - CodePlus Workshops and Talks
 - Maths Revision Days
 - Campus Visits
 - Educational Awards
 - HPAT Information Evening
 - Summer School
 - Chemistry School
 - Pathways to Law
 - Pathways to Business
- Post Entry Activities (offered to young people entering Trinity College Dublin through national HEAR/DARE schemes or through the Foundation Course) :

- Pre-University Programme
 - Formal Advisor Programme
 - Networking Events
 - Social Events (paintballing, tablequiz, camping)
- As well as representation of young people at national events, launches, internal committees, and in internal and external communications & media relating to TA21.

TA21 commits to safeguarding children, young people & vulnerable adults we work with through:

- Delivering training to all staff and volunteers engaged in TA21 activities that is appropriate to their role, work and contact with young people.
- Vetting of all TA21 contracted staff (every two years).
- Vetting of volunteers who will be engaged in work with children, young people or vulnerable adults on behalf of TA21 in an unsupervised capacity (every two years).
- Identifying of mandated reporters working within TA21 and communicating their legal responsibility of reporting in line with legislation.
- Evidence of all Child Protection training will be provided and kept on file.
- Adhering to the procedures set out for the recruitment and selection of staff and volunteers in Trinity College Dublin's Child Protection Policy.
- Providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support and training.
- Adopting Child Protection guidelines and reflecting these through our code of behaviour for staff and volunteers.
- Sharing information about Child Protection and good practice with children, parents / guardians, staff and volunteers.
- Sharing information and working with the College Designated Liaison Person
- Sharing information and working with relevant agencies in particular TUSLA and An Garda Síochána, where appropriate.
- Review of TA21 child safeguarding statement and accompanying child safeguarding policies and procedures every 2 years or sooner if necessary, due to service issues or changes in legislation or national policy.
- Audit of TA21's programmes and activities to adhere they accompanying with child safeguarding policies and procedures outlined here, every 2 years or sooner if necessary, due to service issues or changes in legislation or national policy.

- In cases where a new programme is being run, a risk assessment for that new programme will be done to ensure it meet the standards of child protection as outlined in this statement.
- TA21's Child Safeguarding Statement applies to all paid staff, volunteers, visitors, facilitators, guests, and students on work placement within the organisation. All affiliated persons with TA21 must abide by these child safeguarding procedures.
- The welfare of the child is paramount in all decisions, activities and programmes involving children and young people in relation to TA21

TA21's Child Safeguarding Statement has been developed in line with the Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children, Tusla's Child Safeguarding: A Guide for Policy, Procedure and Practice, the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, Trinity College Dublin's Child Protection Policy and current legislation such as the Children First Act 2015, Child Care Act 1991, Protections for Persons Reporting Child Abuse Act 1998 and the National Vetting Bureau Act 2012.

In addition to the procedures listed in our risk assessment, the following procedures support our intention to safeguard children while they are participating in programmes and activities run by TA21:

- Procedure for the management of allegations of abuse or misconduct against workers/volunteers of a child availing of our service
- Procedure for Garda Vetting of staff and volunteers.
- Procedure for induction and training of staff and volunteers in relation to Child Protection.
- Procedure for the reporting of child protection or welfare concerns to Tusla
- Procedure for the reporting of a retrospective disclosure.
- Maintaining a list of the persons who are mandated reporters

- Procedure for Accidents and Incidents when a child or young person hurts themselves while taking part in a TA21 programme.

TA21 recognises that implementation is an ongoing process. Our organisation is committed to the implementation of this Child Safeguarding Statement and the procedures that support our intention to protect the children, young people and vulnerable adults from harm while participating in our programmes and activities. This Child Safeguarding Statement will be reviewed on 1st March 2020, or as soon as practicable after there has been a material change in any matter to which the statement refers.

This has been published on the TA21 website and is displayed in Goldsmith Hall, Pearse Street where the TA21 offices are based. It has been provided to all staff, volunteers and any other persons involved with the service. It is readily accessible to parents and guardians on request. A copy of this Statement will be made available to Tusla if requested.

Appendix A - CODE OF BEHAVIOUR FOR STAFF & VOLUNTEERS

TA21 employees and students in contact with children should:

- Show respect and understanding for the rights, safety and welfare of the children and young people
- Be aware and adhere to TA21 and Trinity College Dublin's child protection policies and procedures.
- Be aware of appropriate ratio of adults to young people is put in place for all TA21 events the ratio may vary depending on the particular situation, the age of the participants and their dis/ability or other special needs (Where activities involve being away from home overnight, appropriate gender based supervision will be provided.)
- Be aware of the Designated Liaison Person and Deputies appointed in TA21 and have their contact details to hand. Any complaints or issues arising which concern the safety or welfare of any child/young person who attends any events or meetings organised by TA21 should be raised to this person.
- All contracted employees working in TA21 will be Garda vetted.
- All volunteers working on behalf of TA21, who will be working with young people directly, will be Garda Vetted.
- Not let inappropriate behaviour/language by the children/young people go unchallenged
- Record any incidents or accidents while the child is in the care of TA21 (see sample form Appendix B);
- Understand the clear channels of communication and access to staff in the office if parents/guardians or children/young people wish to voice their concerns if there is something they are not happy about;
- Make every effort to ensure that during its events, the physical surroundings will be comfortable, fully accessible and appropriate for the work being undertaken;
- Not take a young person alone in a car on journeys. Where this is unavoidable, it should be with the full consent and knowledge of the parents/guardians and a senior member of the staff in TA21 and the Designated Liaison Person.
- While we recognise that sometimes it is appropriate for staff to work on a one to one basis with a child or young person this will be kept to minimum and only in cases where needed. Staff/volunteers should not spend excessive amounts of time alone with an individual child/young person. Where an adult needs to meet with a child/young person alone, the door should be left open and another adult informed of the meeting;

- Should have no unnecessary physical contact between themselves and a young person although there are times when for example, placing a hand on a distressed child/young person's shoulder to comfort him/her would be appropriate. Physical contact should only be in response to the needs of the child and should be appropriate to the age and the level of development of the child.
- Respects and promotes the principles of equality and diversity and works with all children in a culturally sensitive way.
