

Masterclass Series 2021

National
Intellectual Disability
Memory Service

@NidmsIrl @ageingwithid
#dementia
#intellectual disability

Promoting Brain Health across the Lifespan

Tuesday, 13th April 11.00am – 12.00pm

Chair: Professor Mary McCarron, Executive Director, National Intellectual Disability Memory Service

Speakers: Prof. Sean Kennelly, Clinical Director, National Intellectual Disability Memory Service; Dr. Eimear McGlinchey, Associate Professor, Trinity Centre for Ageing and ID; Marianne Fallon, Chartered Health Psychologist, Brothers of Charity Services, Ireland

Cognitive Stimulation Therapy for Dementia

Tuesday, 27th April 11.00am – 12.00pm

Chair: Professor Mary McCarron, Executive Director, National Intellectual Disability Memory Service

Speakers: Dr. Gunnar Scheibner, Clinical Psychologist, St. Michael's House; Pauline Smyth, Psychology Support Worker, Brothers of Charity Services, Ireland-Western Region (Roscommon)

Supporting People with Dementia to Age in Place

Tuesday, 11th May 11.00am – 12.00pm

Chair: Professor Mary McCarron, Executive Director, National Intellectual Disability Memory Service

Speakers: Evelyn Reilly, Candidate Advanced Nurse Practitioner; Pamela Dunne, Clinical Nurse Specialist, National Intellectual Disability Memory Service & Daughters of Charity Services

Supporting Nutrition in the Later Stages of Dementia

Tuesday, 18th May 11.00am – 12.00pm

Chair: Professor Mary McCarron, Executive Director, National Intellectual Disability Memory Service

Speakers: Michelle Hurley, Senior Dietitian, Cope Foundation, Cork; Jenna Pyne, Senior Speech and Language Therapist, Cope Foundation, Cork

The National Intellectual Disability Memory Service provides access to a Brain Health Clinic and to specialist assessment and comprehensive diagnostic work-up for memory concerns. With Prof Mary McCarron as Executive Director and Prof Sean Kennelly as Clinical Director, our multidisciplinary team on-site includes a Consultant Geriatrician, Consultant Psychiatrist, Advanced Nurse Practitioner and Clinical Nurse Specialist. While the service is free, a referral from your doctor, via Healthline, is required to access the service.

Welcome to the National Intellectual Disability Memory Service Masterclass Spring-Summer Series 2021

This masterclass series will be of interest to:

- All clinical and multidisciplinary support staff members and families who provide supports to people with ID and dementia or at risk of developing dementia
- Families and staff who provide supports to people with ID and Dementia at the later stages of life

The masterclass series will be led by

Prof Mary McCarron, Executive Director, NIDMS. Director of the Trinity Centre for Ageing and Intellectual Disability, Trinity College Dublin

Prof Seán Kennelly, Clinical Director, NIDMS. Consultant Physician in Geriatric and Stroke Medicine, Tallaght University Hospital

Evelyn Reilly, cANP in Dementia and Intellectual Disability, NIDMS and the Daughters of Charity Disability Support Service

Marianne Fallon, Education and Training Officer, NIDMS & Chartered Health Psychologist, Ps.S.I.

Continuing Education Units

The Nursing and Midwifery Board of Ireland has granted 4 Continuing Education Units (CEUs) for completion of the National Intellectual Disability Memory Service Masterclass Series 2021.

Only registered nurses and registered midwives shall receive CEUs.

Questions for Masterclass panel members

There will be an opportunity for questions and answers in each masterclass. Please email any questions for the Q&A session with our guest speakers and panellists in advance to nidms@tcd.ie

Registration

We invite you to join us for this stimulating and supportive series of events by registering through this link:

https://tcd-ie.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_iZQ_dB1BQUqLDYEEeiOmhQ

Please note that attendees will be limited to the first 500 people registered but that each session will be recorded.