

Derogations for Middle Eastern and European Languages and Cultures (MEELC) 2022-23

1. Progression Regulations
Progression regulations will be standardised as much as possible across undergraduate programmes. Some variation may be required to accommodate requirements from external professional and accrediting bodies.	No derogation necessary.
2. Annual Progression
i. Progression should be on an annual basis.	No derogation necessary.
ii. Students should be allowed to carry failed modules from semester to semester, but not from year to year.	No derogation necessary.
iii. Students should receive provisional module results after Semester 1 for all modules completed and assessed during Michaelmas term. Courts of Examiners should convene after Semester 2 assessment and consider and confirm the results from both semesters.	No derogation necessary.
3. Progression Threshold
i. The mark representing a pass should be standardised as far as possible across all programmes. All programmes should provide clear grade descriptors setting out what constitutes a pass.	No derogation necessary.
ii. The progression threshold in all standard four-year degree programmes will not be higher than the pass mark.	No derogation necessary.

4. Minimum credits to pass a year and progression thresholds.
i. Students should have a balanced credit load across the two semesters, i.e., 30 credits in semester 1 and 30 credits in semester 2.	No derogation necessary.
ii. The number of credits to pass a year should be 60 [this is predicated on all undergraduate programmes comprising 60 ECTS per year].	No derogation necessary.
iii. Compensation: All modules and components within modules are “compensatable”.	No derogation necessary.
5. Degree Award Calculations
The calculation of the degree award will be based only on the final year (SS) grades.	Derogation granted - MEELC students entering Junior Sophister in 2021/22 – 2024/25 will have their degree calculated only on their SS grades. From 2025/2026, Junior Sophisters will return to the standard degree calculation of JS 30% / SS 70%.
6. Number of years to complete a degree.
The maximum number of years to complete an undergraduate degree should be: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 6 years for a standard four-year programme• 7 years for a five-year programme unless otherwise specified by accrediting bodies.	No derogation necessary.
7. Repetition of a year¹
i. Students should be allowed to repeat all years.	No derogation necessary.
ii. Students should not repeat any academic year more than once within a degree programme and may not repeat more than two academic years within a degree programme [See Recommendation 6].	No derogation necessary.

iii. Repetition of a year is in full, i.e., all modules and all assessment components. There will be an option to repeat a year on an 'off-books' basis. ²	No derogation necessary.
8. Reassessment³
i. Supplementals should be available in all years.	No derogation necessary.
ii. The right to supplementals where a student has failed at the annual session should be automatic. ⁴	No derogation necessary.
iii. The same progression regulations, including compensation, should be applied at annual and supplemental sessions.	No derogation necessary.
iv. Re-scheduled exams within the session should be discontinued.	No derogation necessary.
v. Students (in all years) should only be required to re-sit examinations or re-submit coursework for failed modules or components thereof.	No derogation necessary.
vi. Different reassessment modalities should be allowed where appropriate.	No derogation necessary.
vii. Where supplemental assessments are taken, marks are awarded and agreed as usual. Capping will not be applied.	No derogation necessary.
9. Special Examinations
Special Examinations should be discontinued.	No derogation necessary.
