

External Examiners Policy

1. Context

As a designated awarding body, Trinity College Dublin, the University of Dublin, herein referred to as Trinity, is responsible for the establishment and granting of awards, in alignment with the Irish National Framework of Qualifications. Trinity engages external examiners to evaluate the quality and academic standards of its taught programmes and postgraduate research theses, in line with international best practice.

Trinity is also required to assure the quality of validated programmes delivered by its linked educational providers under the Quality and Qualifications Ireland (QQI) Act 2012.

2. Purpose

The External Examiners Policy ensures a transparent, consistent and effective external examining system at Trinity.

3. Benefits

- 3.1 The quality of the content, organisation and assessment of Trinity's programmes is maintained and enhanced.
- 3.2 The Trinity education is benchmarked to that of comparable universities.
- 3.3 The standard for research thesis examination is aligned with international best practice.

4. Scope

- 4.1 This policy applies to the external examining of taught programmes at undergraduate and postgraduate level and postgraduate research dissertations.

- 4.2 The minimum requirement at Trinity is for external examining of the final year of degree awarding programmes. Additional requirements vary across schools and disciplines and may be subject to the requirements of external accreditation bodies.

5. Principles

- 5.1 Trinity is responsible for the quality assurance of its education, research and related services.
- 5.2 External examiners provide a valuable and objective perspective that contributes to the quality assurance of Trinity education and research programmes.

6. Definitions

- 6.1 External Examiners are individuals appointed to provide impartial and independent advice on degree awarding standards and on student achievement in relation to those standards. They are drawn from academia and also from industry, business and the professions. For research dissertations the external examiner must be recognised as an independent expert in the candidate's field of study.

7. Policy

7.1 Role of the External Examiner of Taught Programmes at Undergraduate and Postgraduate Level:

- i. Evaluate if academic standards are being maintained.
- ii. Ensure that examination regulations are followed.
- iii. Ensure that individual students are treated fairly.
- iv. Moderate on borderline cases in all classes of award.
- v. Attend at least one meeting per academic year of the Courts of Examiners of which they are a member.
- vi. Identify and communicate areas for improvement at the Court of Examiners and document them in the External Examiner Annual Report.
- vii. Submit the External Examiner Annual Report within eight weeks of completion of external examining duties.

7.2 Role of the External Examiner of Postgraduate Research Theses, Masters and Doctoral:

- i. Determine if a thesis submitted for a Masters degree shows evidence of rigour and discrimination, appreciation of the relationship of the subject to a wider field of knowledge, and makes a contribution to knowledge/scholarship.
- ii. Determine if a thesis submitted for a Doctoral degree shows evidence of rigour and discrimination, appreciation of the relationship of the subject to a wider field of knowledge, and makes an appreciable, original contribution to knowledge, as well as showing originality in the methods used and/or conclusions drawn.
- iii. Propose that, in the case of a Master's degree;
 - a. The degree be awarded for the thesis as it stands.
 - b. The degree be awarded for the thesis subject to minor corrections, for which two months are allowed from the time of notification.
 - c. The thesis be referred for major revision and subsequent re-examination, for which 6 months are normally allowed from the time of notification, or
 - d. The thesis should be failed.
- iv. Propose that, in the case of a Doctoral degree;
 - a. The degree be awarded for the thesis as it stands.
 - b. The degree be awarded for the thesis subject to minor corrections, for which two months are allowed from the time of notification.
 - c. The thesis be referred for major revision and subsequent re-examination, for which six months are normally allowed from the time of notification.
 - d. A lower degree be awarded, if necessary, following minor corrections to the thesis, or
 - e. The thesis should be failed.

- v. Viva Voce Examinations
 - a. A viva voce is not mandatory in the examination of a Master's thesis, however, one may be arranged if either of the examiners, or the School's Director of Teaching and Learning (Postgraduate), requires it after preliminary consideration of the thesis.
 - b. A viva voce examination is mandatory in cases where one or both examiners contemplate failure of the Master's thesis or recommend that the thesis is referred for major corrections.
 - c. A viva voce must be held for all Ph.D. candidates.
- vi. Inform the Dean of Graduate Studies that requested corrections have been carried out satisfactorily if nominated to do so in the case of two External Examiners being appointed, one of which has been assigned the functions of the internal examiner.
- vii. Submit the report of the examination (including the viva voce if held) within eight weeks of the completion of examining duties.

7.3 Criteria

7.3.1 Taught Programmes

- i. External examiners must possess sufficient seniority, experience and achievement in the discipline covered by the programme.
- ii. External examiners should normally be attached to a third level institution and hold qualifications to at least the level of the qualification under assessment.
- iii. External examiners should not have any existing or recent relationships with Trinity, members of its staff or students that could call their impartiality into question.

7.3.2 Research Thesis

- ii. The Dean of Graduate Studies approves nominations for external examiner for Masters and Doctoral Research Thesis on behalf of the University Council.

- iii. Where it is necessary to create an additional external examiner position, then the Dean of Graduate studies must give approval to the creation of the position.

7.5 Term of Appointment

- i. The term of appointment for external examiners for taught programmes is three academic years.
- ii. Extensions for an additional year for taught programmes may only be sought under exceptional circumstances and require approval from the Dean of Undergraduate Studies or Dean of Graduate Studies, as appropriate.
- iii. Examiners in taught programmes may not be re-appointed unless at least six years have elapsed since the end of their previous appointment.
- iv. The term of appointment for external examiners of research dissertations is to the point of completion of the process, which may be up to two years if work is referred for major corrections.
- v. Examiners of research dissertations may not be appointed until at least five years have elapsed since the end of their previous appointment.
- vi. An external examiner may be discharged from their appointment at any time during their term, if they fail to adequately perform their roles and responsibilities, as outlined in this policy or if conflicts of interest arise during their term.

7.6 Payment

- i. Trinity pays external examiners of taught programmes fees at a fixed rate and also reimburses expenses incurred.
- ii. Trinity pays external examiners of research thesis a fixed fee per individual examination and also reimburses expenses incurred.
- iii. Payment is administered by relevant Head(s) of School and School Administrator(s).
- iv. External examiners must complete the required payment forms in order to facilitate payment.

7.7 External Examining of Validated Programmes Delivered by Linked Providers

7.7.1 Linked providers are expected to abide by the terms of this policy and are accountable to Trinity for the quality assurance of programmes validated by the University.

7.7.2 Linked providers must submit nominations for the external examiners of validated programmes to the Trinity College Registrar, for approval by the Associated Colleges Degree Committee, or equivalent management committee.

7.7.3 Linked providers meet all the costs associated with the external examining of validated programmes.

7.8 External Examining of Programmes Delivered by Collaborative Partners

7.8.1 Collaborative partners must establish their own arrangements for the external examining of collaborative programmes, in alignment with this policy and in accordance with relevant quality assurance legislation in their respective jurisdictions.

8. Responsibility

8.1 The Office of the Dean of Graduate Studies is responsible for overseeing this policy in relation to postgraduate taught and research programmes.

8.2 The Office of the Dean of Undergraduate Studies is responsible for overseeing this policy in relation to undergraduate programmes.
