- Some Trinity Electives fulfil Columbia Core Requirements. The Columbia Deans of Advising for your programme will be in contact with you to advise of which Trinity Electives fulfil Columbia core requirements. If you wish to take Trinity Electives that do not fulfil Columbia Core Requirements, we advise you to contact the relevant Dean of Advising to understand the ramifications of your decision.
- Language modules offered through Trinity Electives DO NOT fulfil Columbia Core requirements.
- Students can take a maximum of one Trinity Elective per semester. Some programmes may only allow for one Trinity Elective at a specified time, where known, we have provided information on this. You may wish to contact your Trinity Academic Advisor for more details on this.
- Any student who does not register for a Trinity Elective and is required to take one will be randomly allocated to a Trinity Elective and this module may not fulfil Columbia Core Requirements as capacity is not guaranteed.
- It is normally not possible to change Trinity Elective modules.
