Trinity Joint Honours

Trinity Joint Honours students who wish to go on Erasmus/Study Abroad should normally:

- Be in their third year of study
- Have passed their second year with a minimum of a II.2
- Finalise their degree pathway and exit award in the spring of their second year, prior to finalising and submitting their Study Abroad learning agreement (dates to be advised)
- Ensure they are aware of any pre-requisites for modules in their final year and should make informed choices on whether to proceed with exchanges.
- Have their learning agreement approved by the relevant study abroad co-ordinator(s) for their subject(s) and the Undergraduate Common Architecture Office (UCAO) (tjh.erasmus-studyabroad@tcd.ie)
- Should any change need to be made to the learning agreement after approval, the student must seek the agreement of the relevant study abroad co-ordinator(s) for their subject(s) and the UCAO to ensure the changes comply with their degree pathway.
- Full-year Exchanges:
  - Should undertake 60 credits (ECTS) for a full year abroad.
  - Will be assessed on the best returned marks for 45 ECTS (or the equivalent) completed while on a full year exchange
- Half-year (One Semester) Exchanges:
  - Should undertake up to 30 credits (ECTS) for a one semester exchange.
  - Must complete 30 ECTS according to their pathway in the opposite semester at Trinity.
  - Will be assessed on the best returned marks for 20 ECTS while on a one-semester exchange abroad.

Pathway – Joint Honours

Trinity Joint Honours students who wish to graduate with a Joint Honours award in both of their subjects:

- Will need to ensure that their location of exchange will allow them to take the equivalent of up to 30 ECTS in each of their subjects for a full-year exchange, or the equivalent of 15 ECTS in each subject for a half-year exchange<sup>1</sup>.
- Will need to choose the Joint Honours degree award pathway during the pathway selection process.
- Will need to have their learning agreement approved by both of their subjects and the Undergraduate Common Architecture Office (tjh.erasmus-studyabroad@tcd.ie)
- Will, for the purposes of assessment, return a minimum of 22.5 ECTS (or the equivalent) in both of their subjects for a full-year exchange. Students on a half-year exchange will return a minimum of 10 ECTS (or the equivalent) in both of their subjects.

<sup>1</sup> If there is no viable possibility to pursue exchanges studying both subjects in this structure, individual students on Joint Honours pathways may seek agreement from both of their departments and the UCAO to study all required credits for one subject in one semester on exchange and take their required credits for their other subject in Trinity in the other semester. Not all subjects can currently facilitate this option and students should first discuss this with departmental study abroad coordinators.
